SWIMMING—

A MILE IN THE BLUE!

Try out for the mermaids' championship on the roof of the world—two big pools, warm sulphur and a blue-green glacial plunge that would make a seal sing... If you prefer golf—there's a Stanley Thompson post-grad course that cost $450,000 including bent grass greens, blue grass fairways and a clubhouse worthy of the 19th hole... Riding? Saddle horses keyed to all comers... Climbing with Swiss guides... Motoring to Chateau Lake Louise... Dancing!... to a 10-piece orchestra... Eating, plain and fancy? Here's a milieu that has everything—set in the middle of a thousand-mile mountain playground. Come up this summer and stay!

Special monthly rates, European Plan for typical room with bath, single—$8 up per day, double—$12 up. Period suites for two, $28 up. Special servants' quarters. Room rates about 20% lower during May, June, Sept. Special rates for families. American Plan also, May 15th—June 15th and Sept. 7th to 30th, for stay one week or longer, room with bath and meals, single—$10 per person per day, double—$18 per day. Hotel opens May 15th.

I'm through with putting on my make-up in the tantalizing glare of wall lights. My new Face-a-lite mirror casts its concentrated light on my face, where I want it, but keeps it out of my eyes, where I don't.

You see, Face-a-lite has a strong bulb, hidden behind its mirror and perfectly focussed by its frosted glass reflector. The result is that your entire face is flooded with an even, brilliant light—without a single shadow and yet without the least glare in your eyes.

This dressing table model is mounted on a good-looking, chromium-plated stand, 14" high, $20.00. For men there's a shaving model that fastens to the bathroom wall, $12.50.

COMFORT ACHIEVEMENT AT PALM BEACH

ALM BEACH is the most thoroughly comfortable place in the world. Features of physical comfort that may be considered extraordinary in some places are merely "standard equipment" here. From the wood fire started in the grate by the touch of a button to the myriad creature comforts of the bath-dressing room, life for the winter residents of the Palm Beach colony is made so smoothly and effortlessly comfortable in and about the homes that nothing seems lacking.

And the dog is not forgotten. Swinging lower panels in the doors that permit him to pass from room to room at will with only the touch of his paw to gain him ingress or egress, a special padded basket in a sunny corner of the loggia and his own comfortable seat in the car between the chauffeur and footman constitute a part of his share.

From the time that the guests or owner is awakened in the morning by the gentle alternating electric current that caresses the body to wakefulness at the hour for which it is set instead of the strident tones of the plebian alarm clock until he or she is soothed to sleep by the dulcet tones of subdued electric chimes, of individual room control, the hours slip by without hint of inconvenience or discomfort. Anyone of the average winter household here who found anything lacking would be like the poor little rich boy who cried because he "wanted to want something."

It was not always so. Fourteen years ago when there were only two hotels here and thirteen cottages, one golf course and about ten square yards of grass except at the golf course, life here was different. Winter visitors, relatively speaking, camped out for a season that began during the first week in February and ended with Washington's Birthday. All the cottagers wanted then and about all they had were houses that provided simple sleeping, dining and indoor lounging facilities.

The season then meant merely a tiresome routine of constant costume changes in an effort to be very "proper" at all hours of the day, indoor rest, a social call, a game of euchre. Outdoor recreation was confined then to possibly a few holes of indifferent golf, a ride over sketchy roads in a wheezy motor or a wheel chair or possibly a stroll along the few hundred feet of walk along the ocean front or an adventurous hike on the jungle-like path beside the lake.

Society today spends five months here which is a longer period than it spends at any of its various homes or favorite resorts here or abroad and demands and gets physical comforts and conveniences that were unthought of years ago. As the younger matrons and youths formed the habit of following their elders to Palm Beach, outdoor life superseded the voluntary indoor imprisonment of the early two weeks seasonites and now winter residents spend more time in the open than they do between walls. That applies to home life as well as recreations.

Comparatively small and stuffy rooms gave way to larger and more airy rooms. Wooden window frames and cross sections on windows and screens were replaced with bronze frames and sheer glass for greater sunlight and visibility. Sun porches disappeared and the present day beautiful loggia appeared and became either a great cloister-like open space or a glass enclosed room with heat when desired but with an effect of open air freeness. This is made possible by the installation of great plate glass windows so large that they are operated by individual electric motors which raise or lower them onto the ground at the touch of a button. These plate glass windows are framed in bronze and weigh hundreds of pounds. When lowered the tops of bronze form close-fitting sill on the floor of the loggia and when raised they afford perfect protection and preserve the outdoor effect. Smaller windows slide to right or left at a touch, moving like the larger ones, on steel roller bearings.

Harrison Williams, Otto Kahn, Joseph B. Widener, John Hampton Cooper, William J. McAneeny and Harold Vanderbilt, down at Lantana, find these windowed loggias particularly pleasing. It is possible under this arrangement to furnish the loggias as elaborately as may be desired without danger of damage to the furniture or decorations from the elements. Mr. Vanderbilt has added a private sun parlor for himself and private sun parlors for guests so that, as in many other winter homes, guests may leave their bedrooms by a separate stairway that protects the regular stairways from the damage of sand and water, and dash down to the private swimming pool for a swim, and return to their rooms and step into their private sun parlors where they may exercise with wall gym appliances before indulging in a sun bath and an extra coating of tan.

These private swimming pools, with their private instructors, are quite a feature of the colony. Underwater lighting, fun devices, air inflated mattresses instead of tile to rest upon and their water heating arrangements that make night and all-weather bathing a joy together with refreshment facilities make them all important. Mr. Vanderbilt goes a step further than the others in that he has had installed an electrically equipped kitchen beside his pool for the benefit of hungry guests and likes to breakfast there almost daily.

In the house if the bedroom is cool, a button touched will provide heat and a thermostat control or maybe it may be that a grate fire is preferred. Either another button is touched and the natural wood logs are started by means of a series of gas jets concealed beneath the logs or a bit of "lighter-wood" may be used. It is pine so full of pitch that it can be lighted with a match as a wax taper might be lighted and can be tossed into the fire place.

If the mood is musical, either radio or victrola may be started with the touch of a button with the controls hidden conveniently. An iced drink might be desired. Very well. Through a central refrigeration system, ice cubes are frozen in each room and cool air can be obtained with equal ease and all these conveniences are individually controlled in each room so that one may have what is wanted without calling a servant or annoying another guest who may want none of them.

Music transmission devices are concealed ingeniously in old Spanish iron chests that have open traceries, in furniture, in vases, in murals or in decorative wall panels.

Inter-room telephone systems with a central switchboard somewhere down stairs for outside calls make communication simple but most social messages are now conveyed by telegraph such as invitations and acceptances and what not. A television was reported but the writer could not locate it. Stock quotation tickers are considered necessities in some of the homes while little tiled grates set in the walls at a height that has given them the name of "kidney warmers" have been found pleasant to warm the soul when the market misbehaves.

Tile floors, many of elaborate mosaics, and tile stairways are popular because they are cooler and easier to keep in perfect condition. The stairways are so constructed that a trip upstairs is not a hardship if one prefers the exercise to a ride on the many private electric elevators that serve the colony. These stairways have a tread of from fourteen to sixteen inches with a rise of from between four and a half to five inches which tends to make an ascent much like a walk on level surfaces.

Edward F. Hutton owns and uses what is probably the most striking bit of mosaic in Palm Beach. It is a dining room table thirty-six feet long by six feet in width and is made in marble mosaic over a foundation of two-inch slate. It weighs approximately several tons and the leaves, of which there are eight, weigh so much that four servants would have so much difficulty in handling them that a special motor crane was designed to lift them into place or remove them according to the guest requirements. It represents three years of work in Florence.

Contributing to physical comfort with beauty, the Donahue formal gardens introduce novel lighting effect. Artificial moonlight effects are produced by the installation of miniature spotlights attached to the trunks of the palms and placed directly under the leaves in ingenious concealment.

Under these palms the large blue tiled lily pond has a system of flood lights of small candlepower arranged along the edge in such a way that they are not visible to guests but shed a subdued light across and into the waters of the pool and show the large family of goldfish residing there to startlingly beautiful advantage.

In addition to his tennis court and informal garden on the space built up from the sands opposite the Donahue home there is also a complete, if small, kitchen and facilities for service, something like arrangement at Harold Vanderbilt's Lantana estate.

With twenty-four wells augmenting the normal water supply, Harrison Williams feels no doubt about the irrigation of his extensive gardens as well as his miniature citrus grove and truck farm. His gardener merely looks at his chart, decides what area is to be watered and touches a button and the automatic system does the rest.

Many homes have private tunnels leading under the ocean boulevard to their private beaches but those conveniences, like the almost numberless other small things that give big results in comfort are expected and accepted as a matter of course and would hardly be given a second thought unless they were missing but then nothing, or virtually nothing, is missing from the homes and grounds of the winter residents here that might, in even a small degree, contribute to the nth degree of comfort that makes the winter season here the most enjoyable.

An ensemble of unerring distinction blends three creations typical of Udall and Ballou. The combination diamond and cabochon emerald bracelet mirrors the flawless green-and-white beauty of the emerald ring, with two baguette diamonds in the shank. The earrings . . . of baguette diamonds and cabochon emeralds.

POLO AT PHIPPS FIELD

POLO activity during the past two weeks has been attracting many members of the resort colonies of Palm Beach, Delray and Miami Beach to attend spirited matches at Phipps Fields, Gulf Stream. These superb playing fields, in a perfect setting of tropical beauty, have brought many of the world's best players to participate in winter matches. Although pushing their opponents hard in the last five minutes of the eighth chukker recently at Phipps Fields, Gulf Stream, the Miami White Birds, consisting of Fred Wettach, Nelson Talbot, E. H. Reynolds and Charles Gore, were nosed out of a victory by the Delray Yellow Birds, made up of Howard Phipps, J. Gordon Douglass, C. S. Lee and James Cooley, with the match ending 9 to 7.

The early part of the match saw some fast playing but the Delray team established a generous lead which they kept until the last chukker of the match. The fifth chukker showed the beginning of some furious riding by both sides, with Wettach making a nice run and placing the ball for a goal. Later in the chukker he made a fine back-hand shot which was frustrated by Howard Phipps, who with C. S. Lee was in top form throughout the game. Howard Phipps, near the end of the chukker, brought the ball through a maze of players and made a tally for the Delray side, with the gong ringing less than a minute later, leaving the score 6 to 3 in favor of Delray.

In the beginning of the sixth chukker, Fred Wettach of the Miami outfit made a beautiful run of more than half the length of the field, outdistancing Howard Phipps, but failed to make the goal with the ball just grazing the outside edge of the upright. Shortly afterwards, when the players were milling around the goal for position, J. Gordon Douglass broke through with the ball and made a most difficult shot, the ball just rolling through for a tally. Thus the sixth chukker ended with the Delray team on the long end, 7 to 3.

In the seventh chukker both teams were going at a fast pace and the first goal came with C. S. Lee as back making a fine shot from safety. Wettach then made a beautiful pick-up and placed it for a goal, aided by Charles Gore. The teams then played at a lively pace but the next tally was taken by Miami when Nelson Talbot, who had played a fine game all the way through, exceeded only by the playing of Wettach, made a score after a foul. Then the bell rang for the end of the chukker and the score was 8 to 5, with the Miami White Birds looking as though they would come out from behind and give the Delray team a hard fight after all.

The eighth chukker was the most thrilling period of the whole match. Both teams came out with fire in their eyes and started right in at a furious pace. Wettach was a whirlwind, bobbing up everywhere and making a beautiful pick-up at the south end of the field and placing it for a goal. Then began an exciting race to the other end of the field, where Wettach placed a pretty shot which was followed through for a goal by Talbot. The ball was again carried the length of the field after several skirmishes, and J. Gordon Douglass, in a frantic effort to carry the ball out of Miami territory, took a fall. He was up again almost immediately, his pony was caught and the game was on. James Cooley, hard-riding member of the Delray team, came through like a flash and with scarcely two minutes to play made a fine shot which brought the score up to 9 for his side as against 7 of the opponents. The Miami group then made a valiant attempt to tally once more and were riding hard when the gong rang and the game was over and the match ended, 9 to 7, in favor of the Delray Yellow Birds.

A large crowd was present to view the match but cloudy skies and threatening rain kept one of the largest crowds of the season from attending what turned out to be one of the most exciting contests seen at Gulf Stream thus far.

Rains of the day and night previous made the field a bit slow and prevented the teams from showing lively action throughout the match. The Delray team was in much better condition than the Miami group, having been down here most of the season, while two members of the Miami team only arrived in Florida last week. Yet, the White Birds put up a fine fight and when the gong rang were riding out in front. According to the handicaps, the match ended just about as it should have. Charles Calhoun of Miami refereed the match. Proceeds from the match were donated to the Lake Worth Community Chest.

FISHING IN PALM BEACH WATERS

GREAT excitement was to be had one afternoon recently among the sport fishermen out in the Gulf Stream. One of the largest marlin seen in some time was observed by several skippers, and a number of them started in immediate pursuit to give the anglers a chance to hook this fighting fish of the sea. Although the marlin repeatedly came to the surface, it did not seem the least inclined to take any bait. If it had, there would have been a merry time of it, for lines and boats were clustered together near the spot where the fish was cavorting. It is expected that several of the anglers will try their luck this week in an effort to hook one of these large fish.

Mr. Ward Ames, Jr., caught one of the record fish of the season when he landed a most perfect specimen of sailfish, measuring seven feet, ten and one-half inches, while outside on board the "Marjorie" with Capt. Kingsley Knowles. An interesting feature of this catch was the fact that Mr. Ames caught it while kite fishing. This sport, which is well known on the west coast, has only recently been put into practice here by Mr. Harlan Major, who has devised an excellent outfit.

The kite is attached to the regular line by means of a detachable clasp. When the kite is flown, the bait, which is on the angler's line at right angles to the kite line, is jerked up and down by the antics of the kite, giving the bait the appearance of a live mullet. When the fish strikes, the line is jerked apart from the kite line and the fish is landed. Mr. Ames praised the new sport highly.

Mr. J. M. Atkisson, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodruff, and a prominent angler, entered a huge grouper in the heavy tackle class of the Sailfish Club of Florida contest, and followed it up with a kingfish measuring thirty-seven and one-half inches. He was out on the "High Jacker." Two days later Mr. Atkisson landed another sizeable "king," weighing sixteen and one-half pounds, which he entered in the weight class of the Sailfish Club of Florida contest.

Mr. Frank Duff Frazier, one of the most well-known sporting fishermen in Palm Beach, landed a beautiful sailfish while out on his own boat, the "Diane," with Capt. Walt Githens. The "sail" weighed fifty-eight and one-half pounds and put up quite a fight before it was brought alongside and landed.

Mr. Frank McCormick, who is a guest at the Poinciana, went out with a party on board the "Good Times," owned by Capt. Herman Gray, Jr., and succeeded in landing three sizeable amberjack as the result of an interesting afternoon's sport.

Mr. Wyckoff Smith and his daughter, who are guests of the Breakers, spent an interesting afternoon fishing and landed a large sailfish after an interval of exciting sport. They were aboard the "Miss Sally" with Capt. George Fizell.

Another party which had an excellent day's luck with game fish was that of Mr. Edward Reeves, who had as guests, Miss Katherine Kresge, Miss Evelyn Cushman, and Mr. George Mann. Miss Kresge landed a huge sailfish, which was her first; Mr. George Mann then duplicated the catch with one equally as large, and Mr. Reeves finished out the day's sport by catching a hefty grouper.

Mr. Hugo Wagner brought in a fine specimen of sailfish recently, measuring seven feet, eleven and one-half inches, which gave him some great sport, on light tackle. The fish was entered in the annual contest of the Sailfish Club of Florida. He was out with Capt. Edward Moore, on board the "Osprey."

MISS MURIEL McCORMICK
of Chicago, who is spending the winter at "Casa Alejandro," the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander McKinlock.

COTTAGE COLONY SOCIETY LIFE

THE MUSIC ROOM of beautiful "Casa Mia," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seligman, was the setting for Dr. Walter Damrosch in the third of his dramatic piano recitals on the Nibelungen Trilogy before a brilliant audience of subscribers and their guests. In the concluding recital of the series the noted musician analysed "Gotterdammerung," the last of Wagner's immortal music-dramas based upon old Norse sagas. In "Gotterdammerung" the twilight of the gods approaches, the old order changes and disappears in tumult and conflagration and the promise of a new era rises phoenix-like from the ashes of the old. In his impressive and individual manner, Dr. Damrosch read the dramatic lines, unweave the leitmotif that interprets the characters and forces through which the drama moves, and played the tremendous score by which Wagner expresses its attendant emotions, one of the most impressive pieces of music ever composed.

The utmost interest has attended the three recitals which Dr. Damrosch has given here and which were sponsored by Mrs. Seligman, Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury and Mrs. Alfred G. Kay. In a season notable for the diversity and excellence of its cultural events, Dr. Damrosch's recitals have held a place of high eminence and have been among the most enjoyable as well as the most important social affairs of the season.

Following the recital, a buffet supper was served. Among those present were: Mrs. Louis F. S. Bader, Mrs. Henry E. Bemis, Mrs. A. M. Banker, Mrs. George Barnard, Mrs. Jay F. Carlisle, Mrs. Hugh Chisholm, Miss Nellie Cluett, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Miss Dorothy Chase, Mrs. J. L. Coulson, Mrs. John E. Dana, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. The annual society baseball game at the Poinciana Field, between the New York Police and the Philadelphia Hoboes, played recently, provided an excuse for several gay celebrations in the cottages. One was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence C. Fuller on Sea Spray Avenue which was an enjoyable affair that followed the game. Mr. Fuller was captain of the Philadelphia team which went down in gallant defeat to the Manhattanites by a score of 7-1.

Among guests at the tea representative of the cottage colony were Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher D. Smithers, Mr. and Mrs. A. Atwater Kent, Mr. and Mrs. F. King Wainwright, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Work, Mr. and Mrs. F. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Webb, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pillsbury, Capt. and Mrs. R. Quentin F. Feitner, Capt. and Mrs. R. Amcotts Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer L. Schiff, Col. and Mrs. William Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Jay F. Carlisle, Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Miss Sarah Jane Sanford, Mr. James H. R. Cromwell, Mr. James R. Hyde, Mr. Joshua S. Cosden, Mr. William J. Baxter and others.

Children's parties are always added to the social activities of the late season, and one of the most delightful was that given at the Singer Place, home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Farrell, by their daughter, Ritchie. The young people were entertained at luncheon followed by a motion picture showing. Those attending included Ritchie's sister, Fairfax Farrell, and Hope and Beatrice Procter, Lillian Feitner, Kate Barkhausen, Anita Kay, Gloria Baker, Alice Wyeth, Joan Wyeth, Annette Reynolds, Marie Bassett, Andrea Luckenbach and Diana Duff Frazier.

Among the parties given to honor Dr. and Mrs. Walter Damrosch, and also in compliment to Miss Anna Case, celebrated Metropolitan Opera singer, was a buffet luncheon at "Villa Bellaria," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil J. Stehli. Sixteen guests were entertained in the loggia where four tables were placed, covered with bright-colored table cloths. After luncheon, contract was played.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury have as their house guest, Mrs. Alexander William Biddle of Philadelphia, Pa., who is being extensively entertained at "El Mirasol."

Preceding the final concert by the Society of Arts, given at the Everglades Club last week, were several smart dinners in the resort, and one which assembled a small group of the social elect was at "La Fontana," where Mr. and Mrs. George Luke Mesker were hosts at a party honoring Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly of New York. Mrs. Twombly is the house guest of Mrs. W. Seward Webb. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mesker's included Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Lewis Gourveneur Morris, Mr. Edward Lowber Welsh, Mr. Henry T. Sloane and Mr. William Henry Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vail Brokaw entertained at dinner last week in compliment to their house guest, Mrs. Brokaw Dugmore. The party was held at the handsome ocean-front villa which was greatly improved and enlarged last summer by Mr. and Mrs. Brokaw.

More than a hundred guests were entertained last week at a recital by Mr. Stewart Baird, given at "Villa Filipponi," the home of Mrs. Joseph B. Long, on Clark Avenue. Mr. Baird is a talented diseur and his annual program given in the resort always provides a stimulating and enjoyable evening. Following the rendering of songs in French and Spanish, a buffet supper was served in the attractive patio.

A dinner that brought together most of the smart society members of the resort, was that given last week by Mr. Jules S. Bache at "La Colmena," on Barton Avenue, where Capt. Jefferson Cohn is a house guest.

A group of younger set members was entertained last week by Miss Hope Bennett at "Casa Sonada," on Via del Lago, at a dinner given in honor of Miss Bennett's house guest, Miss Rose Davis. The party was held at the home of Miss Bennett's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Bennett, and after dinner guests were taken to the Colony Club for dancing. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. John Millen of Boynton; Mr. and Mrs. Kenelem Winslow, Miss Mary Louise Smithers of the Boca Raton Club, Miss Evelyn Cushman and Messrs. Evelyn Reeves, George Mann, James N. Neville and Martin Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil H. Sawyer entertained at their Clark Avenue villa last week at an informal tea, having Dudley Doe's entertainers to add to the jollity of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Terry West have been hosts at several small entertainments given for their niece, Mrs. Joseph Donner of Buffalo, who is their house guest at "La Casita," on Sea Breeze Avenue. Mrs. Donner came over from Daytona Beach, where she passed most of the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elting of Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Edward T. Stotesbury celebrated his eighty-second birthday recently with his annual reception at "El Mirasol," receiving hosts of friends all afternoon who came to offer their congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury welcomed their guests at their palatial ocean-front villa, and, according to tradition of long standing, Mr. Stotesbury cut a huge birthday cake as part of the celebration program. A Meyer Davis Orchestra played under the personal direction of Meyer Davis, and Josef Kallini sang.

AMONG THE PALMS

RS. WILLIAM A. SNYDER of Chicago entertained the other day in honor of Mrs. George Benson, also of the same city. The south lounge of the Breakers, famed for its beautiful tapestries, formed a distinctive background for the affair, when 40 friends gathered for luncheon. Tall silver candlebra, alternated with bowls of gay and colorful spring flowers along the U-shaped table, held lighted tapers which cast a soft glow over the table. After luncheon, several progressions of contract were played. Among the guests enjoying Mrs. Snyder's hospitality were Mrs. George A. Eddy, Mrs. Price Williams, Mrs. Frank A. Quigley, Miss Mary Louise Burns, Miss Lilian Baldwin, Mrs. Louis Cantonie, Mrs. Edward Strauss, Mrs. Catherine Legget, Mrs. John M. Smyth, Mrs. Frank Schwinn, Mrs. Samuel Cole, Mrs. Leon Hartman, Mrs. Joseph Duetsch, Mrs. Harry Prufrock, Mrs. William Louis Koehne, Mrs. William Wollard, Mrs. Frank Dolan, Miss Eileen Dolan, Mrs. James Leary, Mrs. John Hilton, Mrs. John Hegge, Mrs. Milton Florsheim, Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. Sidney Smith, Mrs. Earl Deak'n, Mrs. Laura Norton, Mrs. George Warren Fuller, Mrs. Herbert S. Rauh, Mrs. Emil S. Kischel, Mrs. Vincent B. Ward, Miss Hazel Hook, Mrs. Urban Harris, Mrs. Lyman D. Smith, Mrs. Otis Kenyon, Mrs. Herbert Boehm, Mrs. Edward Adams, Mrs. Edward F. Foley and Mrs. John Barnes. A few days later Mrs. Snyder entertained another group of friends at a luncheon party given in the north lounge of the Breakers.

Colorful spring flowers in profuse quantities adorned the table while gleaming silver candlebra, holding lighted pink tapers added to the attractiveness of the decorative scheme. After luncheon, tables were set up for contract. Enjoying Mrs. Snyder's hospitality were Mrs. Walton Parker, Mrs. Harry Thomas, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. George Benson, Mrs. Howard Brown, Mrs. George A. Eddy, Mrs. Daniel Donahue, Mrs. T. J. Falvey, Mrs. Herbert-Johnson, Mrs. Orville Thompson, Mrs. O. N. Tevander, Mrs. William H. Cowan, Miss Helen Snyder, Mrs. H. W. Armstrong, Mrs. Frank D. Craig, Mrs. Oscar Seebass, Miss Pauline Bode, Mrs. William F. Bode, Miss Jean Armstrong, Mrs. Ellsworth C. Warner, Mrs. Charles M. Hayes, Mrs. George Webber, Mrs. Nell Kendall, Mrs. K. Ream, Mrs. John R. Thompson and Mrs. Elmer Rich.

The social calendar at the Breakers was filled with attractive affairs last week. One of the largest parties being that at which Mr. Robert S. Rodie of Kingston, N. Y., entertained at dinner. The dining table in the north loggia was distinctively appointed, with tall silver candlebra holding black candles and lovely silhouetted place cards effectively contrasting with bowls of crimson roses. Mr. Rodie gave the party in compliment to his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Pwley, also of Kingston. Other guests enjoying the affair included Mr. and Mrs. John Davis Schoonmaker, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Slyke, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hornbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Cook, Miss Anna Fuller and Mrs. R. W. Appleby.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kennedy of New York, season guests at the Breakers, gave a delightful farewell dinner party on the same night for Mr. and Mrs. Karl Corby of Washington, who have returned north after a month's visit with Mr. Corby's mother, Mrs. Charles I. Corby. Colorful spring flowers were lavishly used to embellish the table around which were seated in addition to the above, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Casterlin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaw and Mr. Thomas P. Bones.

Mrs. Nathan D. Bill of Springfield, a season guest at the Breakers, entertained at a luncheon recently in compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Fritz B. Talbot of Boston. Mrs. Bill's party was given in the north lounge, overlooking the sea, and her guests were seated at one long table. Slender crystal vases, holding pink roses and blue larkspur, were placed at intervals along the table and formed a lovely decorative note. Thirty-two guests joined Mrs. Bill and the honoree for the affair. Contract was played during the afternoon.

Mrs. Harry J. McIntyre of Hamilton was hostess the other day at a luncheon at the Beach Club, given for Mrs. W. J. Southam and her guests, who drove up from Boca Raton.

Her table had novel place cards for each guest, holding a dainty handkerchief tied with pastel ribbons. The entire color motif of the table was gold and pink, a mound of yellow tulips and pink freesia and lilacs centering the table, and two bowls of the same flowers set at either end.

Guests of Mrs. McIntyre, with the honoree, were Mrs. Cyril Watson, Mrs. Victor Watson, Mrs. R. L. Smith, Mrs. Orchard, Miss Sally Pierce, Mrs. James W. Thomson, Miss Mary Southam and Miss Williams, all of Boca Raton. Those from the Palm Beach colony included Mrs. Vincent Scullin, Mrs. Earl Hastings Deakin, Mrs. George Sykes Wallen, Mrs. Arthur Hammerstein, Mrs. Myra Finn, Mrs. Harry C. Childs, Mrs. Edwin A. Burch, Mrs. John E. Good, Mrs. Frances Barnes, Mrs. James J. Daly, Mrs. William H. Cowen, Mrs. John E. Dordan, Mrs. Simon Healey, Mrs. John Alden, Mrs. C. R. Carroon, Mrs. Celeste Durrand, Mrs. Murray Vallance, Mrs. William C. MacNeil, Mrs. Henry McSweeney and Mrs. Wilson M. Southam of Hamilton, Ontario, Canada.

Honeymooners staying at the Royal Poinciana Hotel last week were Monsieur and Madame Domange of Paris, France, who are in America on their wedding trip. They were married in Paris on the seventeenth of January. During their trip they have visited London, New York, Bermuda, Havana and Miami. Upon leaving Palm Beach, they will go to Washington, New York, Chicago, and Canada. Their itinerary will then lead back to New York, from whence they will sail for Paris. This is the first time Madame Domange has visited the United States, and is the initial Palm Beach visit for them both.

MRS. KARL CORBY

Of Washington, one of the most charming young matrons of the Breakers season colony, and an annual Palm Beach visitor.

Well-known stage and theatre stars registered at the Poinciana during the week that they were in Palm Beach for the Kiwanis Benefit Show included Phil Baker, master of ceremonies for the Kiwanis Benefit Show; Cleo Mayfield; Cecil Lean, Lou Alton, Janet Reade, Walter Batchelor, casting director, and William Gaxton, star of "Fifty Million Frenchmen."

* * * *

Well-known annual visitors who are guests of the Royal Poinciana Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Hutchinson of Columbus, Ohio, who have wintered here for 28 years. They motored down from New Jersey to Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson will go to Augusta Mrs. W. A. Shreve of Bordentown, N. J., who have been at the Poinciana for the past two months. Upon leaving Palm Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson will go to Augusta and Aiken.

An attractive guest at the Breakers is the Countess de Perdicaris of New York and Florence, Italy, who is in Palm Beach with her grandmother, Mrs. H. T. Hoffman of Cincinnati. They were guests at this hotel last season and have many friends in the winter colony. Countess Perdicaris came to this resort as a girl and returned last year for the first time since her marriage. Count Perdicaris was down earlier in the season, but after a fishing cruise with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hudson Marks, aboard the "Nuala II" around the Keys, returned to New York. Count and Countess Perdicaris have a beautiful villa in Florence and divide their time between that city and New York. She has a lovely voice and is noted for her concert work.

Mrs. C. P. Hoffman of San Francisco and her brother, Mr. Virgil Giannini, also of that city, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Giannini at the Breakers. Mrs. Hoffman, who was formerly Miss Claire Giannini, spent several weeks at the Breakers last season prior to her marriage in the early summer. She is a lovely brunette and one of the most charming members of the winter colony. The entire family is remaining at the resort until April 1.

Mrs. E. C. Kischel of Minneapolis, a popular member of the season colony at the Breakers, entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon party the other day, choosing the Patio Marguery for the affair.

Brilliantly colored spring flowers, forming an umbrella, centered the U-shaped table with smaller floral decorations artistically placed at intervals down the sides. A tiny sunken garden with a miniature fountain, splashing musically, placed in the hollow center of the table, was an intriguing, decorative note. Tables for contract were set up in the Spanish Grill room after luncheon. Joining Mrs. Kischel and the honoree were Mrs. Herbert S. Rauh, Mrs. Vincent Scullin, Mrs. Gail G. Grant, Mrs. Robert Rae, Mrs. Charles M. Hayes, Mrs. Howard M. Brown, Mrs. Arthur W. Middleton, Mrs. Floyd E. Wylder, Mrs. Frank McCormick, Mrs. Wil-

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. D. Jones of Providence, and their daughter, Miss Kathryn Lee Jones, have returned to the Breakers for a late season visit after spending a delightful three weeks in Nassau. Mr. Jones and his family were particularly interested in the tennis tournaments played in Palm Beach, as his son, Mr. Arnold Jones, was one of the ranking American players who toured Europe and played with William T. Tilden in 1922 at St. Cloud and Wimbledon against the French and English teams. With the exception of one season spent abroad the Jones family has not missed for years their annual visit to Crawford Notch, where the White Mountains tennis championship is held in July, and in which Mr. Jones and his sons and daughters usually participate.

Dr. Thomas E. Brennan of Brooklyn, N. Y., noted surgeon, is an interesting newcomer to the New Palm Beach Hotel. Dr. Brennan came down to the resort for a much needed rest, and has been thoroughly enjoying his stay. After 25 years of teaching in the Long Island Medical College, serving on the staff of St. Mary's Hospital in Brooklyn, and maintaining a private practice, the doctor felt he was entitled to visit the nation's gayest playground. He tried to get away last year, but his duties in the North prevented his leaving and now, although the weather has not been typical of Florida, Dr. Brennan finds his southern vacation meeting his most pleasant anticipation. Swimming at the Breakers Beach, motoring to the polo matches at Phipps Field, Delray, and dancing at the various night clubs, have made the days fly quickly and happily on this, his introductory visit to Palm Beach.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Sproul motored down from Chicago, Ill., to enjoy a winter vacation in the South, and made the New Palm Beach Hotel their headquarters while here. Their visit to the Florida resort was broken by a trip to Havana, where they stopped at the Parkview Hotel for two days.

* * * *

An interesting couple visiting at the Royal Poinciana are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Neer of San Francisco. They were married in San Francisco during the Christmas season. Mrs. Neer, before her marriage, was Miss Nell Storey. Mr. Neer is a well-known tennis player and was here for the men's tournament. They expect to remain here 10 days.

TASTES AND TOILETTES

EBUTANTES and others who are looking forward to court presentations this spring will be interested in the edicts that have gone forth from royalty concerning styles to be worn at court this year. This year's debutantes at royal courts will wear long skirts. This was revealed today, with announcement by the king and queen of approved designs for the four presentations to take place at Buckingham palace. The skirt terminates just above the ankle and trains will not be more than two yards long. The approved designs, besides those for debutantes, include one for chaperons, another for matrons, and another for "grand dames."

The debutante design is carried out all in white, with a full flaring skirt hanging in three folds, and a bodice of the fashionable sheathlike shape.

The gown is cut low in front with rounded décolletage. The shoulder straps are ornamented with laced ruff effects. The debutante shown in the design wears white gloves reaching above the elbow and carries a little Victorian posie.

The bodice waistline comes below the natural waistline and the edge of the dress and of the train and bodice are trimmed in pointed diamante.

One of the designs for older women is carried out in a green material ornamented with a flower design in diamante. This skirt fits closely, continuing the sheath effect of the bodice. The belt is at the natural waistline and the bodice falls below it in four long points.

For older women there is a gown of blue material with a sash of diamante running across the shoulder. For married women being presented there is a design of flowered material in the fashionable pinkish brown, with square cut bodice and full skirt with a gold lined train.

All skirts fall to about the same length, just revealing the feet. The season's first presentation takes place May 19. The others are on May 20 and June 9.

* * * *

Miss Marie Hoffman, of the Breaker's younger set were seen dancing at the Everglades Club the other night, wearing an exquisite Alencon lace frock of black and shell pink. A wide panel of the pink was used at the front and back of the gown, and godets of black and pink were set in at the knee. A youthful black velvet wrap with a narrow border of ermine outlining the opening and used around the flared peplum was very smart.

* * * *

Mrs. Thomas Shaw of New York and New Orleans, a guest at the Breakers, wears a flame lace dinner gown, forming a decided contrast to her lovely blond hair. The skirt is formed of triple tiers, on a slightly slanting line, the lower tier making a tiny train. An accompanying jacket with a circular ruffle falling gracefully away from the elbow and flame crepe slippers were worn.

* * * *

Another striking gown was worn by Mrs. Coleman F. Madden of New York, a late season guest at the Breakers, who chose a lustrous black French crepe, fashioned with a double flared peplum. The skirt molds closely to the knees where it flares into circular fulness. Her wrap of black velvet with white ermine outlining the neck, decorated at the shoulder with a soft bow and soft puffed sleeves was an interesting accessory.

* * * *

* * * *

Mrs. Phil H. Sawyer is one of the well dressed women of the cottage colony who chooses a pink evening dress embroidered in brilliants for wear to parties not too formal. It is form fitting and made along simple lines.

* * * *

Mrs. Rollin F. Allyne wore jaunty beach pajamas at a jolly party held at "Mi Encanto." This little lady who is a perfect hostess danced around in a costume of white trousers with a wide belt at the high waist line worn with a white silk blouse.

* * * *

Modified sailor suits were popular at the beach party given last week at the Allyne home, the Vicountess Henry H. F. de Frise being one of the attractive guests who chose a costume of this type. The suit was white, trimmed with a blue striped collar, a natty white sailor hat completing the nautical effect.

* * * *

A blue sailor coat was worn with white trousers by Mrs. Charles M. Hall at the same party.

* * * *

Miss Betty Offfield, of Chicago is seen on the beaches in nifty trousers with a striking sweater that has varied colored horizontal stripes to make it interesting.

* * * *

On cool days, Mrs. Barclay Warburton of the Lake Trail wears a stunning cocoa brown dyed ermine coat over a two piece knitted suit of dusky tan bouclette.

* * * *

Miss Marjorie Fales, a charming young member of the Breakers colony, was dancing at the Colony Club the other evening costumed in a lovely madonna blue satin gown. It was fashioned on Empress Josephine lines, with the yoke delicately embroidered in seed pearls. Blue slippers dyed to match and a short white lapin coat were finishing details.

* * * *

Mrs. Charlton Yarnall of the Ocean Walk looks very charming in a chiffon frock of printed design in shades of petunia. The flowers were outlined with a beaded motif, and a jeweled buckle fastened the highwaisted belt.

* * * *

Another distinctive dinner gown is worn by Mrs. James B. Oliver of Shields, Pa., and a guest at the Breakers. It is made of black chiffon with a sunburst rhinestone design on the bodice, and worn with an accompanying coat edged with the rhinestone. Black satin slippers featured jeweled heels.

* * * *

Mrs. Chester C. Bolton, who has a lovely estate on the South Ocean Boulevard, was noted recently wearing a lovely mist grey chiffon Patou gown. The dress is fashioned on form fitting lines, with a long skirt flowing into fullness at the knees. The accompanying coat is bordered with grey ostrich feathers and fits tightly. Jewels of jade form an effective contrast.

* * * *

Mrs. A. E. Kresge of Detroit, who is occupying the A. Howes Torrey House on the South Ocean Boulevard, was dining at the Embassy Club the other night and wore a stunning silver blue lace gown. A long panel in front and back and a double flounce at the hip line were noteworthy details. The décolletage was very low with a softly draped effect at the shoulder. Her wrap was a beautiful white broadtail with a deep collar of baum Martin.

* * * *

Mrs. Frank Y. McEachren, a popular member of the Canadian colony in Palm Beach, daughter of Sir Joseph and Lady Flavelle, was seen recently wearing a sea foam green sports suit, with a blouse delicately embroidered in pastel shades.

* * * *

Mrs. R. A. Kennedy of the Breakers wears a smart spectators sport suit of sun-yellow shantung, with a brown silk lacing at the front neckline and on the sleeves of the accompanying jacket. A brown rough straw medium brimmed hat, and a smartly woven brown and white straw bag were finishing details.

* * * *

Miss Nina Louise Ball of the Everglades Club wears a smart brown knitted sports suit with a collarless tweed beige coat. A wide leather belt and matching leather bag were interesting details, while her halo turban of green knitted jersey was very becoming.

* * * *

Mrs. O. N. Tevander of the Breakers is partial to pink and wears a smart ensemble of shell pink silk crepe, fashioned with a cowl neckline and flared skirt. A long strand of jade beads and matching earrings formed a colorful note.

* * * *

Mrs. Frank Kolb of Clark Avenue visited the beach recently and wore a good looking beach ensemble, the trousers and coat of bright blue, with the white tuck-in blouse featuring a scroll design of blue, the same trim used on the trouser and coat cuffs. A matching scarf was tied around her head.

ANNUAL SOCIETY BASEBALL GAME

WITH the blare of bugles and the ruffle of drums, the Twenty-First Annual Society Baseball Game got under way when the New York Police, under the leadership of Capt. M. Dorland Doyle, appeared at Poinciana Field piloting the Philadelphia Hoboes in wheel chairs headed by Capt. Laurence Fuller. A vanguard of Palm Beach Police, led by Chief Joseph Borman, with the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps escorted the players to the field. Here the Hoboes, as motley a looking crew as ever bunked with Al Capone in a Philadelphia jail, unmasked and lined up under the watchful eyes of the New York Police and all had their picture taken.

Mayor John Shepard, Jr., greeted those present in behalf of the Town of Palm Beach, and Mr. E. T. Stotesbury honored the players by pitching the first ball, officially starting the contest.

The New York Police then proceeded to add another scalp to their belts by beating the Hoboes, 7 to 1, in a nine-inning contest, although until the eighth inning their adversaries were in the lead by the score of 1 to 0.

In the eighth inning the Police went on a hitting spree and hung up five runs before the Hoboes were quite aware of what had happened. They then continued into the ninth and secured two more just to finish up the day's work and to aid the committee collecting funds in the grandstand to show the audience that the Police were no pikers when it came to giving the fans runs for their money.

The annual contest had a far more serious aspect to it than last year's game with each outfit boasting crack pitchers who held the players at the bat to a minimum of hits. Captain Doyle, on the mound for New York, had much better support from his fielders than did Horace Dodge for Philadelphia and that was the main reason for New York's victory. The other reason was Philip Plant. Twice did this husky resort member hit the apple for a two-base hit, bringing in two runs in the eighth and paving the way for two more in the ninth. Both he and Coleman galloped home in the ninth frame with Coleman executing a fancy dive at the plate but coming up smiling.

Others who tallied for the New Yorkers in the eighth were Lucius P. Ordway, Captain Doyle, pride of the force; John S. Millen, who was a pinch hitter for somebody; Philip Plant and Ogden Phipps, who beat the ball to home plate in a tight squeak.

Yea, verily, it was a sad day for the Philadelphia Hoboes. In the first place the New Yorkers sneaked in a ringer, one E. Blair of the Palm Beach Police, and while the said ringer only walloped one two-bagger, bringing in two runs in the eighth, he created what Capt. Laurence Fuller said was a mental hazard which had to be overcome along with a lot of errors.

The one run for the Hoboes was made by Forman in the fourth inning with Dodge who was on second making third when Ehret Howell hit a hot grounder through the shortstop. Horace Dodge did his best to get home but the ball got there first and he wisely stayed on third. The next man up fanned and all the luck for the Philadelphia team sort of oozed away, leaving them high and dry.

Charles Norris upheld the honor of the Philadelphia outfit by duplicating Coleman's swan dive at home plate but it was all in vain, for Blair, in rightfield, caught the fly hit by somebody and it was just one of those runs that didn't count. Ogden Phipps made a beautiful slide for home plate in the ninth but Norris was there to greet him with the ball in his hand and spoiled it all.

Anyway, it was a great game, the grandstand was full. Mrs. Edward F. Hutton and her committee of members of the resort colony collected more than a thousand dollars for the Pension Fund, and after the game the players all had a refreshing drink—of Poland water.

Those serving on the ladies' committee included Mrs. Edward F. Hutton, chairman; Mrs. John L. Welch, Mrs. Horace H. Work, Mrs. Lawrence C. Thaw, Mrs. Valentine Macey, Mrs. Laurence C. Fuller, Mrs. William Thaw, Mrs. Orson Munn, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Adam Thomson, Mrs. Ben Boalt, Mrs. Curtis Hutton, Mrs. Arthur Keleher, Mrs. James W. Wallace, Miss Barbara Hutton, Miss Mildred Packard, Miss Mildred Dickinson, Miss Elizabeth Kent, Miss Gertrude Conaway.

The committee wishes to give appreciation to the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps which so generously responded when asked to march in the parade last Saturday, adding a colorful touch to the entire affair.

Those sending checks are requested to make them out to the Palm Beach Police Pension Fund and mail them to the mayor's office in the Town Hall, or to the above named persons who aided in making the game a success.

The following is a list of names and amounts subscribed to the Police Pension Fund as a result of the game:

Miss Pauline Munn, $25; Joseph Hergesheimer, $25; Orson Munn, $25; J. Kersley Mitchell, $50; George T. Brokaw, $25; M. Dorland Doyle, $25; Elliott H. PALM BEACH CLUB ACTIVITIES

THE LATE SEASON continues to be enriched with cultural and social activities, probably the most important of all being the musicale and tea given recently at the Everglades Club by Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, Mr. and Mrs. A. Atwater Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Yarnall and Mrs. Henry R. Rea. Tea was served to more than 200 members of the winter colony in the patio of the club, where little tables were placed and centered with vivid gladioli. Following the tea, Mme. Nina Koshetz, famous Russian soprano, gave a recital in the music room of the club, which was formerly part of Mr. Paris Singer's apartment. The room was hung with costly tapestries, and the platform from where Mme. Koshetz sang was banked with lilies, potted ferns and plants. "The Bells," one of her own compositions, was included by the singer on her program, and a group of Russian, French and Spanish numbers was also rendered.

Among those who attended this interesting afternoon affair of the past week-end were Dr. and Mrs. Maitland Alexander, Mr. Jules S. Bache, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre L. Barbey, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Barklie, Mrs. J. H. Barton, Mrs. Henry Ellsworth Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. George Tuttle Brokaw, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vail Brokaw, Mrs. Annie Breniser, Mr. William Burden, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Work gave a tea recently at the Everglades Club to compliment Mrs. L. T. Highleyman and Mr. Daly Highleyman of Miami Beach. Guests were seated at four little tables, and were joined later by Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Thomas, who came down from their apartment to conclude the afternoon with dancing. Besides those honored, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Work were Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Julian Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. Terry West, Mr. and Mrs. H. Winfield Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Croker, Mrs. Frances M. Barnes, Mrs. Norma Stemm, Mrs. Frederick A. Glidden, Miss Estelle McNamara, Mrs. Joseph Donner, Countess Zarnakau, Mr. J. H. Cooper, Mr. Reginald Barker and Judge A. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Thomas of Minneapolis, Minn., gave their annual tea recently at the Everglades Club apartment.

The rooms were spring-like and gay with flowers, and the happy atmosphere indoors was only accentuated by rain tapping gently against the window panes. A large bowl of yellow gladioli centered the dining room table and lighted tapers in silver candelabra at the ends shed a soft glow on the assemblage. In the living room a tree of apple blossoms added a bright note.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Cady, Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Lillibridge, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Scullin, Count and Countess de Frise, Mrs. Hamilton Pell, Mr. and Mrs. George Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hand Ball, Miss Nina Louise Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Orville W. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey C. Woodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Pirie, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duff Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Singer, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Foss, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Craig, Commodore and Mrs. Edgar F. Luckenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Gail G. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Deakin, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Busch, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. The annual costume ball was held last week at the Everglades Club, with smart members of the winter colony attending in simple and elaborate array, in vivid costumes from the Orient. Original regalia typical of the modern age, inspired by the sharp concise expressions of present day advertising and newspapers, jostled against stately robes from Venetian courts. A spritely bacchante dashed about in a bright red skirt, covered with vine leaves, and a Gypsy queen danced haughtily by a sleek, long queued Chinaman.

Many guests gave dinners preceding the ball, and the Spanish dining room was gay long before the Grand March started, and during the supper hour that followed. Benar Barzelay and his orchestra proved irresistible to the merry-makers and the jollity continued until the last star had faded from the sky.

Among those who gave dinner parties were Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Diebold, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dun Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Packard, Mr. Edward Lowber Welsh, Mrs. Henry Morgan Tilford, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Parker, Mr. and Mrs. W. David Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duff Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bode, Mr. Charles B. Knight, Mr. Henry J. Hinde, Mrs. E. Gray Pendleton, Mr. Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Mr. Henry Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. Falvey and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Hutchison.

Proceeds of the ball this year were donated to the National Red Cross Fund, and society members showed their generosity by attending in large numbers. Patronesses for this annual event which is one of the season's most colorful and most interesting, were Madame Louise Homer, Mrs. Hugh Dillman, Mrs. George Alexander McKinlock, Mrs. A. L. Diebold, Mrs. Theodore Frelinghuysen, Mrs. Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Mrs. Louis F. S. Bader, Mrs. Harry L. Thomas, Mrs. Pau Moore, Mrs. Quincy A. Gilmore, Mrs. John Shepard, Jr., Mrs. George A. Dobyne, Mrs. J. H. Gibbons, Mrs. Alexander A. McKay, Mrs. Nathaniel Seymour Thomas, Mrs. Henry R. Rea, Mrs. Kenneth G. Smith, Mrs. W. J. Mitchell, Mrs. G. Horton Glover, Mrs. Edgar F. Luckenbach, Mrs. Clifford V. Brokaw, Mrs. Wiley R. Reynolds, Mrs. Horace H. Work, Mrs. Frederic Foster Carey, Mrs. F. Homer Smith, Mrs. Thomas R. Cowell, Mrs. Harry T. Dunn, Mrs. John Charles Thomas, Mrs. Willey L. Kingsley, Mrs. Charlton Yarnall, Mrs. Guy Thomas, Lady Henriette Davis, Mrs. William Waller, Jr., Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. Philemon Dickinson, Mrs. George L. Mesker, Mrs. William F. Bode, Mrs. Frank Vernon Skiff, Mrs. Elden C. DeWitt, Mrs. Chester M. Williams, Mrs. H. W. Chapin, Mrs. George T. Brokaw, Mrs. James G. Alexander, Mrs. J. H. Packard, Mrs. L. H. Parsons, Mrs. Harry Norment, Mrs. Andrew Jergens, Mrs. Howard Selby, Mrs. H. H. Windsor, Mrs. Edmund LeRoy Dow, Mrs. H. E. Bemis, Mrs. Lawrence Floyd, Mrs. Harry L. Thomas and Mrs. Frederick Dwight.

Mrs. Lewis Quentin Jones entertained at luncheon at the Everglades Club recently, in honor of Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly, who is a house guest of Mrs. W. Seward Webb. Other guests at the delightfully appointed affair were Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Henry Morgan Tilford, Hon. Mrs. Frederick E. Guest, Mrs. Clifford Vail Brokaw, Mrs. George Alexander McKinlock, Mrs. Hugh Dillman, Mrs. Sidney A. Coleman, Mrs. Brokaw Dugmore, Mrs. A. Atwater Kent, Mrs. Lewis Gouverneur Morris and Mrs. Willey Lyon Kingsley.

The Florida Embassy Club is popular with a large number of members of the resort colony who take advantage of the beautiful surroundings to entertain at dinner and to dance in the patio.

A most interesting dinner held there recently was that of Mrs. A. Atwater Kent, who entertained about 50 guests. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, Mr. and Mrs. George A. McKinlock, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Warden, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Barklie, Capt. and Mrs. John H. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Yarnall, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Carnival night at the Colony Club presents a gay picture of Palm Beach life, with throngs of winter residents of the resort and guests of the large hotels coming to the club to enjoy the gay affair.

Among the many interesting parties was one given by Dr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Bennett for their daughter, Miss Hope Bennett and her guest, Miss Rose Davis. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. John S. Millen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenelm Winslow, Miss Mary Louise Smithers, Miss Nina Louise Ball, Miss Evelyn Cushman, and Messrs. Edward Reeves, George Mann, James S. Neville and Martin Osborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin F. Allyn gave a party at the club; Comte and Comtesse Henri de Frise had a number of guests with them. Others noted were Mrs. Irene Castle McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lehman of Whitehall, Mr. Joshua S. Cosden, Miss Evelyn Lewisohn, Mr. Clifford Trevor, Maj. Clarence Miceli, and Mr. Ralph Beaver Strassburger, who had a party of guests with him.

An enjoyable tea of the past fortnight was given to compliment Mr. and Mrs. George F. Singer, by Mrs. Charles Albert Smylie III at her villa on Coconut Row. Those who attended included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richard Cowell, Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Stanton Bader, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Elgin Dodge II, Mr. and Mrs. George C. White, Mr. and Mrs. G. Horton Glover, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dobyne, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, Col. and Mrs. William Hayward, Mrs. Irving Hall Chase, Mrs. Lois Umlsen, Mrs. Alexander A. McKay, Mrs. Glenn Hodges, Miss Annette Hodges, Lady Henriette Davis, Mr. Edward Lowber Welsh, Col. Seth Sprague, Mrs. Harry Mason, Mr. Jules S. Bache, Mr. Henry O. Havemeyer and Mr. Addison Mizner.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps were recent hosts at "Heamaw," on the North Ocean Boulevard, to an interesting group of winter sojourners in the island who were entertained at dinner. Later in the evening amusing songs by the Happy-Go-Lucky Boys provided diversion. Among guests at this party were Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Phipps, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Williams, Mrs. Julian Allen, Miss Gertrude Conaway, Lady Parson, Mr. Joseph E. Widener, Earl of Rosse, F. More O'Ferrell, Roderick More O'Ferrell and others.

Miss Bertha Palmer and Miss Eleanor McCormick of Chicago, and Princess Elizabeth Cantacuzene came over from Sarasota, where they are spending the winter, to be guests of Miss Elizabeth Kent last week at "Ocean View Cottage," the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Atwater Kent. They have added to the gaiety of gatherings among the younger social set and have been the center of several functions given during the past few days.

SPORTS IN PALM BEACH

THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF PALM BEACH, the last amateur golf tournament played this season in Palm Beach, got away to an auspicious start recently at the Country Club. As we all remember, Albert R. Hakes of Dunkirk, N. Y., played the best game he has so far this year, and finally walked off with the title after beating Leon Sykes of West Palm Beach in the finals, 5 up and 4 to go. An entrance list of some 40 players started proceedings on the qualifying round. It was a big day for West Palm Beach in the qualifying round of the annual Palm Beach Championship Golf Tournament being played at the Palm Beach Country Club. Jack Butler, Roy Gussman and Leon Sykes, all of West Palm Beach, tied for the medal honors with 73's.

Cards of the first six low players are as follows:

Jack Butler—
Out.....444 255 444—36	In.....553 455 343—37—73
Roy Gussman—
Out.....434 354 455—37	In.....453 445 434—36—73
Leon Sykes—
Out.....434 255 455—37	In.....463 454 334—36—73
A. R. Hakes—

C. R. Burbank—
Out.....435 356 335—37	In.....563 555 344—40—77

Jack Butler was back to his old game. He never did play his usual brand of golf in either the Lake Worth or South Florida tournaments. He barely qualified in the South Florida affair and was eliminated in the first day of match play.

Results:

Championship Flight—Jack Butler, West Palm Beach, 36-37—73; Roy Gussman, West Palm Beach, 37-36—73; Leon Sykes, West Palm Beach, 37-36—73; Albert Hakes, Dunkirk, N. Y., 39-36—75; Tommy Goodwin, New York, 39-37—76; C. R. Burbanks, Westchester, N. Y., 37-40—77; S. L. Reinhardt, Chicago, 43-37—80; W. B. Langford, Chicago, 37-43—80; R. P. Ellis, Brooklawn, Conn., 39-42—81; J. A. Travers, Boston, 41-40—81; Elmer Rich, 42-40—82; Jack Cummins, Cleveland, 38-45—83; Arthur Brown, New York, 44-39—83; M. J. Frankle, Inwood, N. Y., 42-41—83; A. L. Stover, Windsor, Canada, 40-44—84.

Second Flight—H. L. Willoughby, Jr., 41-43—84; Ora L. Brailey, 42-42—84; A. Wineman, 42-43—85; H. A. Kelly, 42-44—86; F. M. France, 43-43—86; Harry Thomas, 45-42—87; Robert Calvin, 44-43—87; A. D. Page, Jr., 43-44—87; J. J. Ruff, Jr., 43-44—87; H. B. Ellis, 44-44—88; Ogden Phipps, 43-46—89; J. K. Graham, 45-45—90; P. L. Willis, 43-48—91; B. L. Tyrell, 44-47—91; J. H. Clements, 44-47—91; H. A. Fogg, 48-45—93.

The following players did not qualify: A. H. Gussman, H. E. Ferguson, Henry Pollack and A. D. Page, Sr.

Pairings for the first day's match play were as follows:

Championship Flight—Jack Butler vs. W. B. Langford; Jack Cummins vs. Tommy Goodwin; George Lynn vs. M. J. Frankle; J. A. Travers vs. Leon Sykes; Albert R. Hakes vs. Elmer Rich; A. L. Stover vs. S. L. Reinhardt; C. R. Burbanks vs. Arthur Brown; R. P. Ellis vs. Roy Gussman.

Second Flight—H. L. Willoughby, Jr., vs. J. J. Ruff, Jr.; P. L. Willis vs. J. H. Clements, Jr.; Robert Calvin vs. A. Wineman; H. A. Kelly vs. J. K. Graham; H. A. Fogg vs. A. D. Page, Jr.; H. B. Ellis vs. Ora L. Brailey.

On the first day of match play such favorites as Tommy Goodwin, Jack Butler, Albert Hakes, A. L. Stover and Bob Ellis came through and advanced to the quarter-finals.

The veteran, W. B. Langford, gave Butler a very good and close battle. He was 4 down at the eleventh hole but took the next three holes in succession and came mighty near halving the match. In fact, the medal scores were even, which shows how hard-fought the match was. The cards:

Butler—
Out.....444 344 435—35	In.....454 554 334—37—72
Langford—
Out.....445 544 455—37	In.....553 444 444—35—72

Tommy Goodwin turned in the low score of the day and eliminated Jack Cummins. There was 4 strokes difference in the medal scores, but it was only a 2 and 1 victory. The cards:

Goodwin—
Out.....534 235 445—35	In.....553 444 334—34—69
Cummins—
Out.....534 345 434—35	In.....444 455 435—38—73

R. P. Ellis played about the best game he has played this season in defeating Roy Gussman, 6 and 5. Ellis took an 81 in the qualifying round but went the 18 holes in 70 against Gussman. The cards:

Ellis—
Out.....434 335 435—34	In.....353 455 434—36—70
Gussman—
Out.....445 445 335—37	In.....454 544 434—37—74

Complete results of the day's play:

Championship Flight—Jack Butler, West Palm Beach, defeated W. B. Langford, Chicago, 3 and 1; Tommy Goodwin, New York, defeated Jack Cummins of Cleveland, 2 and 1; George Lynn, New York, defeated M. J. Frankle, Inwood, N. Y., 4 and 3; Leon Sykes, West Palm Beach, defeated J. A. Travers, Boston, 2 up; Albert Hakes, Dunkirk, N. Y., defeated Elmer Rich, 1 up; A. L. Stover, Windsor, Canada, defeated S. L. Reinhardt, Chicago, 4 and 2; C. R. Burbank, Westchester, N. Y., defeated Arthur Brown, New York, 3 and 2; Robert P. Ellis, Brooklawn, Conn., defeated Roy Gussman, West Palm Beach, 6 and 5.

Second Flight—J. J. Ruff, Jr., defeated H. L. Willoughby, Jr., 1 up; F. M. France defeated P. L. Willis, 3 and 1; J. H. Clements, Jr., defeated Robert Calvin, 1 up (19 holes); A. Wineman defeated Ogden Phipps, 7 and 6; Howard Kelly defeated J. K. Graham, 1 up; A. D. Page, Jr., defeated H. A. Fogg, 7 and 6; Harry Thomas defeated B. L. Tyrell, 2 and 1; Ora L. Brailey defeated H. B. Ellis, 4 and 3.

Pairings for the quarter-finals were as follows:

Championship Flight—Jack Butler vs. Tommy Goodwin; George D. Lynn vs. Leon Sykes; Albert R. Hakes vs. A. L. Stover; C. R. Burbank vs. Robert P. Ellis.

Second Flight—J. J. Ruff, Jr., vs. F. M. France; J. H. Clements, Jr., vs. A. Wineman; Howard A. Kelly vs. A. D. Page, Jr.; Harry Thomas vs. Ora L. Brailey.

Consolation Flight—W. B. Langford vs. Jack Cummins; M. J. Frankle vs. J. A. Travers; Elmer Rich vs. S. L. Reinhardt; Arthur Brown vs. Roy Gussman.

Jack Butler, Leon Sykes, Albert Hakes and Bob Ellis came through in royal style in the quarter-finals. Jack eliminated the crack amateur, Tommy Goodwin, by a comfortable margin. Leon Sykes just managed to squeeze a victory out of George Lynn by the score of 1 up.

Albert Hakes played a brilliant game and badly defeated A. L. Stover. Bob Ellis seemed to still be in the winning streak he started early in the tournament. The cards:

Butler—

WOMEN'S TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP OF FLORIDA

THE ANNUAL WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP OF FLORIDA TENNIS TOURNAMENT held on the courts of the Palm Beach Tennis Club was a complete success, with Miss Eleanor Goss of Kew Gardens, Long Island, winning the singles title, and Mrs. Bernard F. Stenz and Mrs. L. Gouverneur Morris, both of New York, winning the doubles title. Among those who played in the tournament were: Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn, Philadelphia; Mrs. Bernard F. Stenz, New York; Mrs. L. Gouverneur Morris, New York; Miss Eleanor Goss, New York; Miss Barbara Phipps, Westbury, L. I.; Miss E. Gorham, Buffalo; Miss Margaret Cluett, Troy, N. Y.; Miss Elizabeth Chase, Narragansett Pier, R. I.; Mrs. Jack McDermott, New York; Miss Marian Wickes, Tuxedo Park, N. Y.; Miss Leta Morris, New York; Miss Gertrude Conaway, Rosemont, Pa.; Miss Hope Bennett, Newport; Miss Rose Davis, New York; Mrs. Jeannette Chappell Hitchcock, New York; Miss Arline Stenz, New York.

The first day of the Women's Championship of Florida Tennis Tournament was featured by the brilliant game Mrs. Jack McDermott displayed in defeating Miss Ann Storrs, 6-3, 6-4. Miss Storrs had previously defeated Mrs. B. H. Namm, 6-1, 6-0, so Mrs. McDermott had to play superb tennis in order to win.

The results:

Mrs. Marion Vanderhoef Morse defeated Mrs. Constance Hadsell, by default; Miss Barbara Phipps defeated Miss Van Alen, 6-1, 6-2; Miss Ann Storrs defeated Mrs. B. H. Namm, 6-1, 6-0; Mrs. Jack McDermott defeated Miss Ann Storrs, 6-3, 6-4; Miss Marion Wickes defeated Miss Rose Davis, 6-3, 6-2; Miss Eleanor Goss defeated Mrs. W. J. Southam, by default; Mrs. Homer Smith defeated Miss Mary Southam, by default; Miss Eleanor Goss defeated Mrs. Homer Smith, 6-0, 6-0; Miss Margaret Cluett defeated Miss Sally Sprague, 6-1, 6-3; Miss Gertrude Conaway defeated Mrs. C. O. O'Donnell, 6-2, 6-3; Mrs. B. F. Stenz defeated Miss Hope Bennett, 6-0, 6-0.

On the second day of the tournament, rain halted the proceedings somewhat, but not before Mrs. Van Ryn, Miss Elizabeth Chase and Miss Margaret Cluett had eliminated a few contestants and had advanced nearer the coveted title.

Miss Cluett had a thrilling battle with Miss Gertrude Conaway. Three sets had to be played before the match was decided. Miss Cluett started out badly and took a 2-6 defeat in the first set.

She definitely turned the tables in the remaining two sets, winning handily.

The results:

Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn, Philadelphia, defeated Miss Elizabeth Gorham, Buffalo, 6-0, 6-2; Mrs. Van Ryn defeated Miss Marion Wickes, Tuxedo Park, N. Y., 6-0, 6-2; Miss Elizabeth Chase, Narragansett Pier, R. I., defeated Miss Leta Morris, New York, 6-2, 6-1; Miss Margaret Cluett, Troy, N. Y., defeated Miss Gertrude Conaway, Rosemont, Pa., 2-6, 6-3, 6-1.

Matches for the next day were scheduled as follows: Mrs. L. Gouverneur Morris vs. Miss Barbara Phipps; Miss Eleanor Goss vs. Miss Margaret Cluett; Miss Elizabeth Chase vs. Mrs. B. F. Stenz; Mrs. J. S. McDermott vs. Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn.

It was a great day for Miss Barbara Phipps in the third day of the Annual Women's Championship of Florida Tennis Tournament. Miss Phipps, who is one of George Agutter's star pupils, turned in a surprising victory over Mrs. L. Gouverneur Morris.

Results of the day's play in the singles tournament:

Miss Barbara Phipps, Westbury, L. I., defeated Mrs. L. Gouverneur Morris, New York, 6-1, 6-2; Miss Barbara Phipps defeated Mrs. Marion Vanderhoef Morse, Philadelphia, by default; Miss Eleanor Goss, Kew Gardens, L. I., defeated Miss Margaret Cluett, Troy, N. Y., 6-0, 6-1; Mrs. Bernard F. Stenz, New York, defeated Miss Elizabeth Chase, Narragansett Pier, R. I., 6-0, 6-0; The Mrs. Jack McDermott-Mrs. G. Van Ryn match was played in Miami, Mrs. Van Ryn winning, 6-2, 6-3.

On the following day Miss Eleanor Goss was scheduled to meet Mrs. Bernard F. Stenz.

The Women's Championship of Florida Doubles Tournament got started February 25, with Miss Gertrude Conaway and Miss Barbara Phipps winning a somewhat lopsided victory over Miss Hope Bennett and Miss Rose Davis. The score was 6-0, 6-1; Miss Eleanor Goss and Mrs. Jeannette Chappell Hitchcock followed up with a 6-0, 6-2 win over Miss Arline Stenz and Miss Leta Morris; Mrs. B. F. Stenz and Mrs. L. G. Morris won over Mrs. W. J. Southam and daughter, Miss Mary Southam, by default.

Pairings for the second day of doubles play were as follows: Mrs. Jack McDermott and Miss Anne Storrs vs. Miss Margaret Cluett and Miss E. Gorham; Mrs. C. O'Donnell and Miss Marian Wickes vs. the winner of the above match; Miss Eleanor Goss and Mrs. J. C. Hitchcock vs. Miss Gertrude Conaway and Miss Barbara Phipps.

Mrs. Bernard F. Stenz of New York was decidedly off form in the semi-finals of the Women's Championship of Florida Tennis Tournament and suffered a 6-0, 6-2 defeat at the hands of Miss Eleanor Goss of Kew Gardens, Long Island.

Miss Goss' brilliant forehand and backhand strokes brought her a comparatively easy victory.

The doubles honor goes to Miss Barbara Phipps, who, with Miss Gertrude Conaway lost a heart-breaking match with Miss Eleanor Goss and Mrs. J. C. Hitchcock. Miss Goss and Mrs. Hitchcock were expected to win, and they did, but not before they had the battle of their lives.

Miss Phipps had easily the hardest forehand drive in the match and she truly played a brilliant game. Miss Goss again showed with her hard-hitting backhand stroke. Mrs. Hitchcock played her usual steady all around game. Three hard-fought sets were played before the match was won.

Miss Margaret Cluett and Miss E. Gorham defeated Mrs. C. O'Donnell and Miss Marian Wickes, 8-6, 6-1. The Cluett-Gorham team had a bit of difficulty winning the first set, but buckled down to business to take the final set by a comfortable margin.

The results:

Singles—Miss Eleanor Goss defeated Mrs. B. F. Stenz, 6-0, 6-2.

Doubles—Miss Margaret Cluett and Miss E. Gorham defeated Mrs. C. O'Donnell and Miss Marion Wickes, 8-6, 6-1; Miss Margaret Cluett and Miss E. Dorham defeated Mrs. Jack McDermott and Miss Anne Storrs, 6-0, 6-3; Miss Eleanor Goss and Mrs. J. C. Hitchcock defeated Miss Gertrude Conaway and Miss Barbara Phipps, 7-5, 2-6, 6-3.

In a beautifully executed, brilliantly fought tennis match on the courts of the Palm Beach Tennis Club, Miss Eleanor Goss of Kew Gardens, L. I., defeated Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn of Philadelphia and won the Women's Championship of Florida title.

Miss Goss played a cool, dependable game and displayed striking ability in placing her shots beyond the reach of her opponent. Her marksmanship practically won her the championship, for she repeatedly placed the ball where Mrs. Van Ryn wasn't, thus winning her games.

Mrs. Van Ryn alternately played brilliant and mediocre tennis. At times she would rise to the heights and return a difficult or seemingly impossible shot and on the very next play drive an easy ball into the net.

Miss Goss easily took the first set, 6-1. Her smooth and powerful forehand and backhand was proving itself more effective than the somewhat erratic playing of Mrs. Van Ryn.

Mrs. Van Ryn started out in the second set to play really marvelous tennis. She chalked up a 4 and 3 lead, but again the cool playing of Miss Goss put her in advance, 5 and 4.

Miss Goss had a chance to win on the next game, for she was in the lead 40-0. Mrs. Van Ryn staged a superb rally and won the game. However, she lost the next two games, the set, match and championship.

Results in singles championship:

Miss Eleanor Goss, Kew Gardens, L. I., defeated Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn, Philadelphia, 6-1, 7-5.

Doubles—Mrs. Bernard F. Stenz, New York City, and Mrs. L. Gouverneur Morris, New York City, defeated Miss Margaret Cluett, Troy, N. Y., and Miss E. Gorham, Buffalo, 6-1, 6-1.

In three hard-fought sets of tennis Mrs. Bernard F. Stenz and Mrs. L. Gouverneur Morris, both of New York, defeated Miss Eleanor Goss, Kew Gardens, L. I., and Mrs. Jeannette Chappell Hitchcock, New York, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1, and won the doubles championship in the Women's Championship of Florida Tennis Tournament.

Mrs. Morris played the most effective game of the day; her brilliant network was greatly responsible for the victory, as she frequently "killed" the ball from her close-in position.

Mrs. Stenz played a steady, dependable game, her only weakness being her backhand stroke, which she badly ffoozed at times.

The second set was by far the most thrilling of the day. After taking a comparatively easy win in the first set, the Stenz-Morris team started to play tennis all over the lot. They took the next five games. They had a 4-1 lead, and were 40-0 on the sixth game, when Miss Goss and Mrs. Hitchcock decided that the state of things was very bad, and started to play tennis all over the lot. They took the next five games in a row and walked off with the set.

ST. AUGUSTINE

RS. LOUISE WISE LEWIS, niece of the late Henry M. Flagler, entertained more than two hundred guests at the St. Augustine links clubhouse, Thursday evening of last week, at a "Come as Your Opposite" costume ball, that was one of the most brilliant social events ever held in this resort city. The clubhouse, decorated by Miss Margaret Lockwood, was done in modernistic style, using the color scheme of blue, silver and white. The main room was arranged to resemble the famous Palm Beach Cocoanut Grove at Palm Beach. Bubbling fountains and rock gardens covered with blue and white flowers helped to give the appearance of the beautiful grounds of the Royal Poinciana.

The well-known Meyer Davis Orchestra from the Bath Club, under the direction of Charles Reader, provided the music for the dancing. The members of the dance orchestra arrived early in the evening by airplane from Miami, where they are appearing this winter.

The verandas were completely transformed into French street scenes, with blue and white canopies topping the supper tables. An original idea was the Cafe Wickersham, where refreshments were served and imported favors were distributed to the guests.

The menu was in French with the introductory idiom, "Ouvert seulement pour une nuit. Ici on peut danser, manger, boire autant qu'on veut."

The waiters were uniquely garbed in black and white, with silver ties and berets.

The party started at 10 o'clock, and Mrs. Lewis appeared to excellent advantage in a Polaire costume, sitting in a wheel chair, to receive her guests.

Mrs. J. K. Wise, mother of Mrs. Lewis, wore a beautiful black and white Frivolity costume, trimmed in ostrich and topped with a high pointed hat.

Mrs. George E. Kidder was a demure Priscilla in a lovely pale gray gown with white collar and hat.

Mrs. J. Irving Corbett was a vivacious Spanish musician, with a brilliant flowered skirt and white voile bodice. Mr. Corbett was attired in a red English huntsman's costume. And a horse's head was typified by Mr. Andre Hazebrucq. Mr. Herbert Latimer was a daring Mexican, and Mr. Empie Latimer came as a Rah-Rah boy.

Mrs. William R. Kenan, Jr., wore a magnificent black and white satin gown of French design and her becoming tri-cornered black hat was draped with a long, graceful ostrich plume.

Mrs. Graham Kenan came in a lovely white brocaded taffeta gown of the Italian Renaissance style of the Sixteenth century. Mrs. Kenan's net-like cap was studded with sparkling rhinestones.

Never has there been so many interesting and distinctive costumes, and it was difficult to select those that were the most unusual.

There were pirates bold, funny clowns, Terrible Turks, demure maids, Salvation Army lasses, romantic Romeos and Juliets, Monks, Nuns robed in red and others in white, pretty Japanese dolls, Apaches dancers, aviators and football players.

Among Mrs. Lewis' guests were Mrs. J. K. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. J. Irving Corbett, Mrs. George E. Kidder, Herbert and Empie Latimer and Andre Hazebrucq, all house guests at "Kirkside"; Mr. and Mrs. William R. Kenan, Jr., Mrs. Graham Kenan, Mr. and Mrs. August Heckscher, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Outhwaite, Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Rodenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Cousley, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril C. Spades, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Henderich, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howard Gamble, Judge and Mrs. George W. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ryman, Mr. and Mrs. John Roe, Mr. and Mrs. George Green, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Fortson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shelley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mattox, Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Lynn, Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Duncan Puller, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lamont, Dr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Lockwood, Dr. and Mrs. Walter D. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Felkel, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stephens, Dr. and Mrs. Z. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Usina, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Price, Mr. and Mrs. James D. F. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong Hart, Miss Mary Lucas Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrold, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Traxler, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunne, Judge and Mrs. David Dunham, Dr. and Mrs. Carle T. Elkins, Mrs. R. D. King, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Farrin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Farrell, Mrs. Thomas D. Green, Mrs. E. N. Calhoun, Mrs. Knight McClintic, Mrs. Puller Moore, Mrs. P. McKay Sturges, Miss Gladys Padgett, Miss Edith Taylor, Miss Agnes Young and Miss Polly Knight; Charles E. Young, Jr., Van Culver, Clayton Kirtland, Harry Edwards, Fred Francis, Albert Watt, William Hillier, Joseph Wood, James Stockton, Clifford Lopez, E. Terry MacGovern, Bertram and Rogero Mickler, Samuel Puller, Tyler Van Campen, Sterling Marsh, Edmund Conners, Verle Pope, Donald DeHoff, George Boughton, J. Kilbourne Hyde, Jr., Dr. Herbert White, Peter Kendrick, Michael Kirtland and Bainbridge Richardson.

There were a number of dinners given before the ball and among the largest was given by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Outhwaite at their home on Valencia Street, who entertained for Mrs. Lewis and her house guests. Among those present with the hosts were Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Irving Corbett, Mrs. J. K. Wise, Mrs. George E. Kidder, Mr. and Mrs. Rodenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Cousley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. James D. F. Schneider, Judge and Mrs. George W. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril C. Spades, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Henderich, Mr. and Mrs. John Dimick, Andre Hazebrucq, Herbert and Empie Latimer, William Hillier and Van Culver.

Mrs. Juncan Puller gave a buffet luncheon Thursday at her home on the bay for her sister, Mrs. Thomas D. Green, and Mrs. Lewis and her guests. Brilliant calendulas were used for decoration. And among Mrs. Puller's guests were Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Green, Mrs. J. Irving Corbett, Mrs. George E. Kidder, Mrs. Stanley W. Cousley, Mrs. Henry N. Rodenbaugh, Mrs. Cyril C. Spades, Mrs. C. A. Lamont, Mrs. Otis Barnes, Mrs. Puller Moore, Mrs. George W. Jackson, Mrs. James D. F. Schneider and Mrs. John Morton Dimick.

Miss Amey MacMillen was a dinner guest at the Ponce de Leon of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Erben.

Mrs. William R. Kenan, Jr., and Mrs. Graham Kenan motored to Jacksonville, where they had luncheon with the Misses Katherine and Josephine Loftin.

Mrs. Theodore M. Livesay gave a luncheon at her home on the bay for her sister, Mrs. Charles Colfax Long, and Mrs. Arthur Cox Patterson. Other guests enjoying the delightful affair were Mrs. M. H. Spades, Mrs. Philip B. Jennings, Mrs. Arthur L. Merriam, Mrs. August Heckscher, Mrs. Arthur Buckner Barrett, Mrs. Herman F. Erben, Miss Mary Smethurst, Miss Amey MacMillen and Miss Florence Eckert.

Mr. and Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell of New York gave a tea Sunday for 35 guests in the Spanish room of the Ponce de Leon in honor of Mr. Harry Harkness Flagler, son of the late Henry M. Flagler. Mrs. Melbert B. Cary, Jr., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flagler, poured. Among New Yorkers present were Mr. and Mrs. William Fahnestock, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederick Talcott, Mrs. William Hickok Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. William Bayne, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Merriam, Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Jennings, Mrs. John Morton Dimick, Miss Jean Lamont Flagler, Mr. Edward Guthrie Kennedy, Mr. Melbert B. Cary, Jr., and Mr. Ten Eyck Wendell, Jr.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cassebeer of New York have returned here after a two-weeks' motor tour through the state and are now at the Alcazar. Sunday, Mr. Cassebeer, Mr. Harry B. Laidlaw, Dr. William P. Pool and Dr. Frederick A. Lund played golf on the St. Augustine links.

* * * *

Others playing practice games were Miss Helen Hicks and Mr. T. Philip Perkins, Miss Maureen Orcutt and Miss Peggy Wattles.

* * * *

Brigadier-General Vivian Collins and Mrs. Collins gave a dinner at their home for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jennings.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willard Hill have returned to the Ponce de Leon after a two-weeks' motor trip in the South.

* * * *

Mr. Beals C. Wright and Mr. G. Carleton Shafer, president and vice-president, respectively, of the St. Augustine Tennis Club, and Capt. Valerian Yavorsky, tennis professional at the Ponce de Leon and Alcazar courts, departed for Palm Beach and will return here for the ninth annual Southeastern championship, to be played on the Alcazar courts on March 15.

ACME OF TENNIS AT PALM BEACH

TENNIS is the chief sport of Palm Beach winter residents and it is distinctly tennis de luxe but if anyone thinks that it is the soft "ping-pong" variety they are sadly mistaken. Fast, good tennis is the rule rather than the exception, not only among the men but among the women and girls and the good stroke form and proper foot work is explained by the fact that virtually all who play on the score of private tennis courts have been coached, like all European society players, by professionals, some of whom are attached permanently to the house staffs of winter residents.

No winter or summer resort in the world has as many perfect private tennis courts as Palm Beach. Many of these, like the courts of the French and Italian Rivas face the Atlantic ocean but Palm Beach's courts are elevated above the beach so that the annoying glare of the European courts is avoided. In point of beauty of immediate surroundings Palm Beach's courts, thanks to tropical trees, plants and flowers, are so superior as a whole that they are in a class by themselves, inviting admiring envy but not comparison with any others.

To playing tennis enthusiasts these private courts are the almost unbelievable utter realizations of their dreams and hopes of perfect courts because they are as absolutely perfect as courts can be made. They are all of clay with a light topping of reddish sand, except one of the James P. Donohue courts which is built of green composition and is located on the built-up beach, and have foundations of crushed rock and cement from four to seven feet deep. They are built with a fine disregard of expense and with a fine sense of beauty with surfaces as level as a billiard table and with artistic equipment, back stops, shaded wrought iron, marble, artificial stone or wicker lounging seats and miniature tea houses for refreshment service.

By happy chance or clever thinking, virtually all of these private courts are located close to the private swimming pools on the various estates so that it is very convenient and pleasant to dash from the court after a couple of hard sets for a plunge and a sun bath on inflated cushions or a bit of luncheon. As bathing suits are almost invariably worn for the morning tennis no time is wasted getting ready for the swim.

Tennis is not only the pet athletic recreation of the Palm Beach winter colony but constitutes a healthful and ideal bracer and "pick-me-up" after a possibly tiring night of varied social activities with another night of similar physical strain just a few hours off.

Every morning between 9 and 10 twelve scores of men, women and girls ranging in age from 17 to 60 gather at these private courts and play from one to three hard sets or put in an hour with a professional. This not only keeps them physically fit as one must be to meet the strain of a social season but develops some really fine players who are, however, seldom seen in public competition except at Newport and Southampton during the annual invitation tournament weeks there or at Aiken or at a select few of the European clubs. Occasionally a few are seen in the Florida championship tourneys at the Poinciana courts and surprise the galleries and the tennis writers to whom their names, as players, are unfamiliar. Barbara Phipps, Julia Sanford, Edna Brokaw, Mrs. John S. Phipps, Mrs. Reginald Boardman and Peggy Phipps were among those surprises, as were also Ogden Phipps, Jimmie and Bill Van Alen, Winston Guest, Tony Biddle, Alfred G. Kay and Howard Brokaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Holden, Mrs. Reginald Boardman, Lawrence Waterbury and Capt. Robert A. Wilson form a little group of enthusiasts who play virtually every forenoon either at the Joseph P. Widener estate, "Japauldon," or at Henry C. Phipps' "Heamaw" court, where they may be joined by Mrs. Dodge Sloane, Hon. Mrs. Frederick E. Guest, who is not using her own private court at "Villa Artemis" this season; Barbara or Ogden Phipps or Peggy Phipps, who plays there or on her father's court at "Casa Bendita," next door, or possibly by Winston Guest when he is here and not too busy with polo.

Harold S. Vanderbilt plays almost every morning at his new winter home at Lantana either with Dan Kenney, his personal professional, or with his guests and Alfred G. Kay is ambitious daily that he may defeat his own professional, Arthur Rudolph, at his South Ocean Boulevard place, "Casa Anada," or volleys with his children, Anita, Audrey and William Warren, unless he has a match on with his intimates or one of his many guests, quite a few of whom enjoy a set after breakfast.

Miss Alice De Lamar plays daily with her private tennis tutor, Boris Khodjieoss, on her South Ocean Boulevard estate court, high above and overlooking the ocean, and is developing a formidable game.

Both Gurnee Munn at "Louwana" and Charles A. Munn at "Amado," which adjoin, entertain many guests on their courts while the Hugh Dillman court at "Playa Riente" is kept quite busy throughout each favorable week. The private court on the Rodman Wanamaker place is idle this season but at the Harrison William's place on North Ocean Boulevard the court is kept busy much of the time. Capt. Robert A. Wilson deserts his own court in Vita Serena much of the time to play elsewhere.

James P. Donahue is fortunate in that he has a choice of a clay court within the grounds of his place, "Cielito Lindo," or one of green composition on his beach, usually preferring the beach court although both courts are frequently in use.

At "Collado Huevo," Paul Moore's South Ocean Boulevard home, the private court is in direct view of the ocean and next to the swimming pool. Here Mr. and Mrs. Moore enjoy many close sets with Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. Wallock, Mrs. John Cross and numerous guests while the Misses Fanny and Polly Moore, Mr. Paul Moore's daughters, stage many a battle.

season, although she does not play, is enthusiastic about the tennis of her two sons, Jock and Ned, who are both clever youngsters with the racquet. Ned is still quite young but Jock, at 14, has shown to good advantage on local courts and in the boys' national tournament. For their benefit, Mrs. McLean retains Paul Heston, former assistant to George Agutter at the West Side Tennis Club at Forest Hills. The youngsters play chiefly at the Bath and Tennis Club.

Grass courts, such as many winter residents are accustomed to in the summer at Newport, Southampton, Seabright, Easthampton, Brookline and a few other northern places, are impossible in Palm Beach because of soil conditions which will grow several kinds of grass but not the kind that will stand up under the severe treatment of constant tennis play. Practice on Palm Beach's perfect clay courts, however, is an excellent preparation for summer tennis play on either grass or clay.

In addition to the private courts, Palm Beach has more than a dozen almost equally good courts at the Bath and Tennis Club, where three professionals, Johnny Cardegna, Jimmy Kenney and Jack Rogers, are always on hand either for instruction or play with members. This is also the case at the Everglades Club courts, where Jimmy Beven and Martin Simons are the professionals and are kept quite busy.

George Agutter, professional of the West Side Tennis Club at Forest Hills, L. I., and dean of American tennis teachers, presides at the eight courts at the Poinciana Hotel, where he is assisted by Rudolph Nobel and Bob Murray. While these excellent courts are nominally for the convenience of guests of the Breakers and the Poinciana they are open to the public on a fee basis.

It is on these courts that the state championships for men, women and mixed doubles and the annual southern professional title event are contested. These tournaments draw large galleries of tennis enthusiasts. High ranking players in both departments of the amateur ranks participate in these tournaments and this year it is expected that William Tilden, a several times winner of the national as well as Florida state titles and now a professional at present getting into his stride on the west coast, will appear in the southern professional event with Vincent Richard, present holder of the professional crown; Francis T. Hunter, who has joined Tilden in the professional ranks; Emmet Pare, all the professionals now at Palm Beach and possibly some other amateurs who are hovering on the brink of professionalism.

Palm Beach is looking forward to a probable finals match between Tilden and Richards who have played many finals as amateurs. Tilden's court strategy and marvelous stroke equipment will be pitted against Richard's unapproached net play and his deadly overhead smashing.

Generous contribution by winter residents to the fund for cash prizes for the professional tournament, which will this year overshadow the amateur events and close the sports season for Palm Beach, is the highlight of the resort's tennis.

HAVANA

ONE OF the most delightful of "old Spanish customs" observed in Havana is that of meeting during the traditional cocktail hour at the tea dance in the Andalusian patio of the Sevilla-Biltmore. Mrs. Robert R. Livingston of New York, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Ennever at their winter home in Havana, entertained during the past week at a smart cocktail party in the patio. Her guests included Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Treadwell of Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Casey of New York, Dr. and Mrs. Veador Leonard of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Byoir of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Ennever.

Cyrus H. K. Curtis, well-known publisher, and Mrs. Curtis, who are entertaining a large group of Philadelphia friends on their yacht, "Lynodonia," anchored after their usual winter custom in Havana harbor, are hosts frequently at luncheon and tea at the Sevilla-Biltmore. Among the guests entertained at a recent luncheon party were their daughter, Mrs. Bok, Dr. and Mrs. Martin Rehfus, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson Wells and their daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Buell, Mrs. Rowland Russell and Mrs. George A. Noyes.

Among northern notables who have been observed in the patio recently or on the roof garden of the hotel are Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City and Mrs. Hague, and Mayor Harry Bacharach of Atlantic City; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Dowling, who were married recently in the North; Karl K. Kitchen, New York writer.

John Sanderson, treasurer of the North American Aviation, Inc., and Mrs. Sanderson are vacationing at the Sevilla from their northern home in East Orange, and plan to return north by air upon the completion of their stay. Other prominent northerners at the hotel include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Napoleon Blye of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. de Mesquita of New York; Mrs. Asa G. Candler and Mrs. Paul Oattis of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kendrick Everett of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Calder and Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Catlin of Bronxville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Duer of Philadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Thrasher of New York; Mrs. Bernard Henry Kroger and Miss Margaret Wiley of Cincinnati.

Col. E. A. Deeds of New York City, one of Cuba's pioneer Americans, has returned to Havana and is at the Hotel Nacional for an indefinite stay. Colonel Deeds has large interests on the island and makes frequent trips down from the North.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Graves and Mrs. J. D. Wilson, socially prominent in Lake Forest, Ill., have come to Havana for a taste of her winter sports and amusements. They have established their home at the Hotel Nacional during their stay in the city.

W. F. Bartholomew of Boston, Mass., a member of the New York brokerage firm, Clarke, Childs & Co., with Mrs. Bartholomew is in the city for a brief holiday. The two arrived on the S. S. Republic of the U. S. Lines, after a cruise from Philadelphia to Jamaica and Panama. While in Havana Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew are making their home at the Hotel Nacional.

Havana, which is distinctly musically inclined, Thursday afternoon paid tribute to Eva Gauthier, interpreter of modern song, by giving her a flatteringly sized audience at her musicale in the silver ballroom of the Hotel Nacional. Various musical societies attended practically en masse, and evidenced marked appreciation of the singer's program. The first part of Miss Gauthier's program was devoted to old songs, dating back to 1593, with lyrics attributed to Shakespeare. The second part was devoted to Debussy, and the third to modern composers such as Ravel, Strawvinski, Gastelneuve-Tedesco, Respighi, Foure and Marx.

It would be difficult to find a more pleasant place in which to dine than the Spanish dining room of the Hotel Nacional, with its wide vistas of terrace and sea. The place has become immensely popular during the last two months and draws throngs of visitors nightly. Among the guests noted in the dining salon Thursday night were former Ambassador James W. Gerard and Mrs. Gerard of Washington, D. C.; W. D. Rebb, entertaining David Fullerton, Mrs. W. D. Rebb, S. Knutsen, and Lady Pearley; A. F. Hetherington, who was host to Mrs. Hetherington, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Reighley, Albert H. Gregg and Miss Elizabeth Gregg; John E. Connelly of New York, host to Mrs. C. A. Springer, J. W. Springer of New York, and Mrs. G. C. George of London; Edward W. Edwards of Cincinnati entertaining Mrs. Edwards, Miss Eleanor Edwards and Robert Rassmussen of Chicago; Gilbert Ottley and Mr. and Mrs. James Ottley; Salvador E. Ros entertaining Mrs. Ros and Mr. and Mrs. Arquimedes Recie; Mr. and Mrs. P. F. McAneny; E. M.

Redrock; Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Corbin of New York entertaining Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Kelb of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. H. Fred Mercer of Pittsburgh; A. A. Klenowert; Mr. and Mrs. William M. Quinn; Mr. and Mrs. John D. McMasters and Mrs. R. S. Holbrook; J. T. Kelly and Mrs. Mary Kelly; Arthur T. Bissell and Miss Emily D. Swindells.

Placing himself squarely on record as in favor of giving women a part in popular government, President Gerardo Machado, in a speech at a banquet at which he entertained 638 provincial governors, municipal alcaldes and prominent citizens of Cuba in the crystal banquet room of the Hotel Nacional, appealed to members of the Senate and House of Representatives present to enact legislation giving opportunities to women to hold offices in the government for which they are fitted. The president's words were inspired by the presence of Mrs. Eulalia Miranda, appointed member of the board of commissioners of the central district which came into existence last week by constitutional amendment to succeed the municipality of Havana.

At the table of honor were seated President Machado, Senator Clemente Vazquez Belle, president of the Senate; Speaker Rafael Guas Cienfuegos of the House of Representatives; Chief Justice Juan Gutierrez Quirez of the supreme court; Secretary of State Francisco Maria Fernandez; Secretary of the Interior Jose Clemente Vivanco; Secretary of Justice Octavo Averhoff; Secretary of the Treasury Marie Ruiz Mesa; Secretary of Public Instruction Carlos Miguel de Cespedes; Secretary of Public Works Manuel Lombillo Clark; Secretary of Agriculture, Commerce and Labor, Eugeno Melinet; Secretary of Communications Manuel Delgado; Secretary of War Carlos Rojas, and Secretary of the Presidency Ricardo Herrera. Other guests included members of the Senate and House of Representatives, justices of the supreme court, judges of the lower courts, provincial governors and many others.

Strange as it may seem in a land where they give both beer and Bacardi rum away for the asking, Cuban bars and cafes do a nice tourist business in soft drinks, thank you.

Odd as it may strike you after looking at the photo of Sloppy Joe's which your pal brought back from Havana, all visiting Americans do not dash to the nearest "cantina" merely to brush up on the "hard stuff." Quite frequently, a little nosing about in the more popular resorts reveals, Americans show a fondness for soft drinks, chiefly of the Cuban variety, for here the non-alcoholic beverage does not owe its popularity to Congress.

So while most of the boys and girls are trampling over each other getting into line out at the Tropical Gardens or demanding their Bacardi cocktails with the accent on the wrong syllable, the safe and sane variety of American tourists are bending the elbow over a wide variety of tropical fruit drinks, few of which are known in the United States.

Pineapple juice, mango juice, crushed mamey, crushed and creamed grapefruit, crushed tamarind, chufas and a score of other strange fruit extracts make up the fountain lists at most soft drink emporiums—and, here's a laugh—at prices often higher than you pay for your cocktails and highballs.

Some of the fruits are not tuned to the American palate but any day you can find soft drink converts among the visiting Americans whose reigning dissipation is a cocoanut milk cocktail. The mango drink is a favorite among Cubans and has the faintest tang of turpentine to it. Thick and sweet, it is not always relished by Americans but crushed fresh pineapple is nectar for any king and is quaffed in great quantities daily in Havana.

Significant of the advance of the season are the number of parties which congregated during the cocktail hour in the Andalusian patio of the Hotel Sevilla-Biltmore. Encouraged by the appreciative dancers, the Palau Orchestra surpasses their usual infectious melodies and the Hawaiian trio are called upon for their full repertoire of American and native songs.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kendrick Everett of New York recently were at a table during the tea with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Springer of New York City, Mrs. L. G. George, Leander R. Lee and Mrs. Ardath H. Robinson. H. C. Berner entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Markham, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hutton and Miss Chingy Hutton in a congenial group.

Also noted, as guests of John McKay of Miami Beach, were Miss Gertrude De Motte of New York, Miss Julia Boyd of New York, and E. M. Costin of Indianapolis. Charles H. Taylor of New York was host to Mrs. M. Wallace, Mrs. J. H. Steinhart, Mrs. J. H. O'Brien and Mrs. T. E. Whitebread.

Senora Rosa Castro, Juanita Gonzales and Senorita Maria P. Castro were tea guests of Vincente Gonzales. At a table together were Senora Encarnacion Pardo de Quintana, Julian Quintana, Encarna Quintana and Maruja Quintana.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bentley of Toledo entertained Mrs. David Wheatland of Marblehead, Mass.; Mrs. Duncan Dana and Mrs. Robert Wister of Bangor, Me. Miss Julia Richards and Miss Peggy Thomas of New York were together. R. G. Waters of New York was host to Mr. Marshall and Mrs. Donough of Worcester, Mass.; Nat Clarke of Bayside, N. Y.; Dr. Mahoney, James O'Connor and James Cullen of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wolfe Kahn and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Burnelli, both honeymoon couples, whose marriages were recent social events in New York, arrived in Havana Friday by specially chartered Sikorsky plane of the Pan-American Airways, and are stopping at the Sevilla-Biltmore Hotel.

Mr. Burnelli, member of the firm of Uppercu-Burnelli, aircraft designers, recently designed the first flying wing, marking a striking departure in aircraft construction. Mr. Kahn, who is the son of the famous financier, Otto Kahn, has carved his own niche in the realm of music as composer, conductor of orchestras and a most accomplished pianist. His bride was formerly Miss Hannah Williams, well-known New York actress.

Each afternoon, after the races at Oriental Park, part of the gay home-coming throng stops in at the Hotel Presidente to enjoy the tea dances on the terrace, which is one of Havana's most fashionable gathering places. The bright orange tables set under the Spanish awnings have an unusually inviting air at twilight, irresistibly suggestive of chummy tete-a-tetes.

Friday a party of Canadians formed a congenial foursome—Maj. and Mrs. J. E. Hahn with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ainsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Stelter of Rye, N. Y., are honeymooning at the Presidente and attended the tea dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Peto and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Steel of New York City were also present.

Four other guests from Gotham included Mrs. M. H. Frank, Miss Helen J. Frank, Miss Ruth Renee Segal and Mrs. J. P. Segal, the wife of J. P. Segal, prominent New York attorney, associated with I. Gainsburg of 35 Wall Street.

Among guests of the Presidente who were noted on the terrace, enjoying its continental atmosphere, were Miss June Foster of Riverdale-on-the-Hudson; J. F. Kitchell of Newark, N. J., who flew over from Miami Wednesday; Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Gallagher, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; H. L. Campbell, Lynchburg, Va.; Douglas Duer of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Railton of Chicago; J. W. Senne, Waywood, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Thrasher of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. High of Reading, Pa.; Lester E. Pflieger, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Ungar, New York City, and Miss Jessie Kleeglatt, also of New York, who came in from Miami.

Each day the luncheon hour sees new and interesting persons, down from the North for a Cuban holiday, assembling in the Spanish dining room of the Hotel Nacional, and Tuesday an unusual number of new faces were seen in the groups of diners gathered about the tables. John Wanamaker, head of the great mercantile firm which bears his name, who arrived in the city, was one of the Nacional's luncheon guests. Mrs. E. L. Brounson, Jr., was hostess to a party of four friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stowers were entertaining Francisco Arofrudia; F. C. Moore had as his guests A. P. Anderson and W. A. Sage, Jr. Others noted here and there were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Tuttle; Mrs. Emily B. Swindella, and Arthur T. Bissell; J. T. Kelly and Mrs. Mary Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Taussig; Mrs. Rae Sokolski entertaining Miss Frances Sokolski and Mrs. Irving Sokolski; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kugel; and Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Stralem of New York.

Dr. T. B. Macaulay of Canada was the guest of honor at a luncheon at which a number of prominent Cuban officials and business men entertained Thursday at noon at the Hotel Nacional. Mr. Macaulay arrived in Havana Thursday morning on the S. S. Prince Robert and stopped here for a short time on his way to the British Exposition at Buenos Aires. The Prince Robert has been specially chartered for this trip and will carry a party of 150 prominent Canadian business men on a good-will tour which culminates in Argentine. Sir George Perley, Canadian statesman, is in charge of the expedition, and Col. J. H. Woods, president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, is also a member of the party. Fully one hundred persons attended the luncheon in Mr. Macaulay's honor Thursday at the Hotel Nacional.

VISITORS from the States were interested in the decorative scheme of the New Colonial grill Wednesday evening at the Bahamian Night Ball, where native arts and crafts, products and industries were effectively used. The pillars and walls were covered with the palm leaf, interspersed with vivid tropical flowers, hundreds of sponges, sea fans and sea feathers, and the purple sea grape were suspended over the dance floor. Also hanging overhead were specimens of deep-sea fish, including the shark with its pilot fish, the king fish and barracuda. Many star fish and turtles were electrified and cast a mellow glow over the dancers, and bales of sisal, sugar cane, exquisite conch shells were part of the decoration.

In the adjoining loggia was a display of native fruits and vegetables, cocoanut hats and native baskets.

Bahamian boys entertained by singing the amusing Nassau folk songs and with eccentric dances and the Bert Lown Orchestra, directed by Dick Morton, played native airs for dancing.

During the dance intermission, the Dean of Nassau conducted lucky number drawings of contributions to aid the Infant Welfare Centre, and was assisted by Mrs. Ormond H. Curry, and Mrs. C. J. Alexander. A substantial sum was realized for this charity.

Many dinners and suppers were given for the Bahamian Night. In the tap room of the grill, Mr. Walter W. Huntley and Mrs. Harry B. Crosby of Buffalo dined with 18 guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Norman G. Degnon, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Balfour, Mr. and Mrs.

Peter Van Vlanderen, Mr. and Mrs. William Thieler, Col. and Mrs. E. H. Teall.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Youngs of New York gave a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederick Brice and Mrs. Donald Bayne.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. L. LaBranche, Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Prosser, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Duncan, Mrs. Vance MacCauley, Mrs. Daniel Platt Caulkins, Mr. R. Holladay.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lockwood of Stamford brought Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Phillips and with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coyne of Kenilworth, Ill., were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Munson brought Mr. and Mrs. Murray Boocock and Mr. and Mrs. H. Winslow White, and with Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan Hutton were Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Pillsbury, Miss Elizabeth Hutton, Mrs. William Dalrymple, Mrs. Frederick S. Fish, Miss Cheney and others.

Mrs. Homer A. Wessel of Briarcliff Manor had a party for six; Mrs. Charles D. Rockwell brought eight guests and there were many other suppers.

Among the events of the week was a bridge luncheon in the south sunroom of the New Colonial, given by Mrs. Frederick Russell of Great Neck and Mrs. H. S. Stevens of New York for 12 guests.

Mrs. C. W. Wannop was a luncheon hostess to 12 Tuesday in the Tap Room of the New Colonial grill.

One of the many vistas of wind-tossed clouds and surging ocean that give an endless variety to a drive along the ocean boulevard that skirts Palm Beach; these coasts that once were the scene of bold activities in the days of the pirates, now hold enchantment for winter visitors—one can imagine buried treasure at the foot of the sentinel palm tree.

Miss Mildred Dilling, well-known harpist, is at the New Colonial with her sister, Mrs. N. C. Brewer. Miss Dilling was heard Monday evening in the Palm Room of the New Colonial and will give a harp recital Saturday evening at the Lighthouse in the New Colonial gardens.

Mrs. George S. Kaufman, wife of the playwright whose latest production, "Once in a Life Time," is now on Broadway, is at the Royal Victoria Hotel.

The wife of the manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, Mrs. R. E. Fox, entertained 40 guests at a bridge party this week at her home on Shirley Street.

The American Consul and Mrs. Fred D. Fisher were at home to 150 friends Monday evening including visitors from the States and prominent officials and local residents.

Count and Countess Felix von Luckner have returned to Nassau this week on the "Mopelia."

The series of races held annually by the Royal Nassau Sailing Club are now in progress and attracting much attention.

The Vice-Commodore H. Winslow White of Commack, L. I., captured the replica of the gold cup presented by the Royal Yacht Squadron to which the Prince of Wales contributed, sailing the "Feiseen," and will have his name inscribed thereon. Commodore Frank C. Munson, sailing "Captain Kidd," came in a close second.

Of interest is the fact that Miss Margaret Mallory of New York is the only woman in the series of races and she sailed a beautiful race with her father's craft, "Blackbeard."

Rear-Admiral, the Hon. Walter K. Moore was the winner of the King's Cup sailing the "Joanna," and this is the first time Nassau has had the possession of the cup for a season.

The boats are of the one design, Pirate class, and carry the skull and cross-bones on their white sails.

An important dinner of the week was given by Mr. and Mrs. H. Winslow White in the Tap Room of the New Colonial grill to 28 guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Munson, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Boocock, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cox, Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock, Mrs. Philip G. Gossler, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh McCarthy and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Boocock gave the first of their annual mint julep parties Sunday evening in Mrs. Frank C. Munson's suite at the New Colonial. The Boococks have transplanted mint from their gardens at Keswick, Va. to the New Colonial gardens and their mint julep parties are something to look forward to each season.

Fridays are the Nassau native fish chowder days at the Paradise Beach Cafe. This week Mrs. Frank C. Munson entertained 30 guests at fish chowder at her Paradise Beach cabana.

Mr. and Mrs. Munson gave a picnic party Friday at "The Narrows" for 75 guests. Among these were the four New York debutantes at the New Colonial as their guests including Miss Margaret Mallory, Mrs. Munson's niece, whom she introduced to society on December 23. Also Miss Sally Coburn, Miss Carolyn Starring and Miss Gretchen Uppercu.

Among the 75 were Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederick Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Twombly, Dr. and Mrs. James C. Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Gossler, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vining Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. Winslow White, Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Dolley.

Dr. and Mrs. James C. Ayer of New York gave a reception for 100 visitors this week at their home, "Ayerdale." They received their guests in the loggia, overlooking Nassau harbor, which is surrounded by a magnificent rock garden in which there are cacti collected from various places of the globe.

Their home, built in Nassau style, has jealousied galleries overlooking the harbor on one side and the ocean and Paradise Beach on the other.

Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ayer, are guests at "Ayerdale," and Dr. Ayer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fanning Ayer of Boston, are at the New Colonial.

The Anthony J. Drexel, Jr.'s are in port on their yacht, "The Queen of Scots," coming from Havana. They have been on an extended Caribbean cruise and will remain in port several weeks.

They gave a luncheon this week in the New Colonial grill for the members of their party, which include Miss Edith Kingdon Drexel and her fiance, Mr. Henry S. Cram. Also Mr. and Mrs. Owen B. Huntsman of New York, Miss Marjorie Drexel, Mr. Anthony J. Drexel III, Col. O'Malley Keyes.

Up Without Effort !

INSTALLED in modern homes from coast to coast, family and guests find our Electric Passenger Lifts practical and convenient. That both the Inclinator and the Elevette give complete satisfaction is attested to by the many owners who have purchased the second machine for their alternate season residence. No longer need your strength be wasted nor your energy dissipated by wearying journeys from floor to floor.

INCLIN-ATOR

Trademark Reg. U. S. Pat. Office

A Modern Device to Avoid Tiresome Home Stair-climbing

Operated by the touch of electric buttons on the car, at top and at bottom of stairs, the Inclinator is easily and safely controlled, and is so convenient that you quickly forget that stairs exist.

The Inclinator can be installed in your home without defacing or interfering with existing stairway. Finished in any desired color, to harmonize with woodwork and decorations, it becomes a piece of artistic furniture. The Inclinator can be in full operation in about two weeks after receipt of order.

"Elevette"

Trademark Reg. in U. S. Pat. Off.

A new and unique form of elevator for home use. Where stairs are not adapted to the inclined lift, the "Elevette" solves the problem. The installation is simple and the cost comparatively low.

$25,000 in Prizes!

And most of it went to golfers who played the new-size Spalding Ball

Here's some interesting inside news on the famous Agua
 Caliente $25,000 Open Tournament:

The winner played a new-size Spalding Ball.

25 of the 36 prize winners played new-size Spalding Balls.

45* of the 61 qualifiers played new-size Spalding Balls.

This is important, too! . . . The winner and 10 of the 36 prize winners used the new Spalding Cushion-neck Irons.

IN PHILADELPHIA

STOP AT THE BARCLAY

For generations Rittenhouse Square has been the centre of Philadelphia's aristocracy. Perpetuating this tradition, The Barclay offers accommodations of unequalled charm and comfort, a short walk from stations, shopping and business districts . . . Luxurious rooms and suites with one to three baths are available by the day, month or year.

HARRY TAIT, Managing Director

The Barclay was designed by J. E. R. Carpenter and built by United Engineers & Constructors, Inc.

-one knows them by their HABITAT

Those persons who always do things well . . . one knows them by their habitat » » They have a definite capacity for living amid the niceties of life without sacrificing any of the material comforts . . . and that at moderate cost.

They may be found swimming on the Côte d'Azur . . . applauding Toscanini at Baireuth . . . making a pilgrimage to Oberammergau » » At home—in the Barbizon-Plaza library reading Aldous Huxley . . . in the Barbizon Concert Hall listening to Homer, Gabrilowitsch or Gieseeking . . . viewing the worth-while in art, in the Barbizon Petit Palais des Beaux Arts located on the mezzanine or, dancing in Les Charmettes—to the muted modern rhythms of Nelson's Orchestra during dinner and supper » » This is the spirit of Barbizon-Plaza.

Of course the building has radio in every room and many other conveniences, is located within a block of Fifth Avenue and one block from Fifty-seventh Street, and is the center of New York's Art and Music Life and is convenient to theatres and shops.

THE CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST is placed in a special recess in your door—in sealed container that keeps everything piping hot. No waiter to interrupt in the midst of a shave or shower. No charge. No tip. No delay. Pick it up when you are ready.

RIVER HOUSE

ALONG THE EAST RIVER • 52nd TO 53rd STREETS
NEW YORK CITY
WHOLLY COOPERATIVE

RIVER HOUSE is more like a group of superb individual private residences than mere apartments. They are fine town houses in their spacious quality and superior finish, with one priceless asset private houses lack—unobstructed light and air on all four sides permanently guaranteed. Spacious gardens and wide terraces assure this unique protection and throughout the expansive river frontage there is a deep water dock with private yacht landing.

No other apartments today have such a magnificent setting and no other residences offer so much in all that is important to fine living at such reasonable prices.

Construction is by James Stewart & Co., Inc., an assurance of superlative quality. Complete information may be obtained from:

THAT INDEFINABLE SOMETHING

Clothes either have it—or they haven't. You can tell in an instant that a man's suit is well cut, . . . yet you can't put your finger on any one part of the suit that is obviously accented.

This is the secret of the highest order of tailoring, and it is the secret of every Gray and Lampel suit.

Beautiful Hair

LEND A CHARM and DISTINCTION not obtainable in any other way. There is no better evidence of culture and refinement. Lucky Tiger frees your scalp of dandruff, overcomes sluggish blood circulation, and gives to the hair a new life and lustre.

AFTER SEA BATHING

Use Lucky Tiger Freely!

THERE'S where you will get your real thrill. Lucky Tiger is marvelous for the hair and scalp. It means more life and more energy. Being a germicide, it goes to the seat of scalp trouble. Those miserable itchings are replaced with tingles as pleasing as the beautiful moonlight and the sparkles of the stars.

LUCKY TIGER

Lucky Tiger has proven its merit over nearly two score years. It is used by millions. It easily has the largest distribution of any similar preparation in the world. Exhaustive bacteriological tests have proven both the safety and germicidal efficiency of Lucky Tiger.

A car
so fine that it will always merit
your praise

As one who loves fine things, you will develop a deep attachment for the Eight as Buick Builds It. Not only because its insulated bodies by Fisher are so luxurious and comfortable, but because its fine performance will be a source of unending joy.

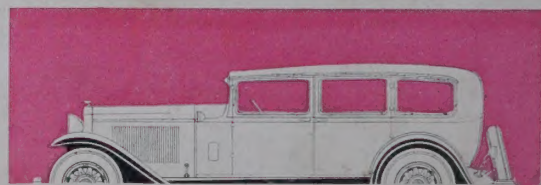

Buick's mighty Valve-in-Head Straight Eight engine—Silent-Shift Syncro-Mesh Transmission—sturdy double-drop frame—and large, powerful braking system unite to make the Buick chassis so outstanding and reliable that it will always merit your warmest praise.
